Yellow Ribbon Ministry Current Military Members

David Moseley

David continues to serve in the U.S. Army Reserve and was recently promoted to the rank of Master Sergeant. He works full time as a Human Resource Specialist at Fort McCoy, WI and has his military training in the Chicago area. This past year, David completed two instructor missions at Fort Knox, KY teaching the Army Human Resources Advanced Leaders Course. In his personal life, David and his wife, Meredith (née Brown) live on the family farm in Warrens, WI and have four children (ages 9, 6, 4, and 1). The Moseleys are homeschooling their two eldest daughters, and hope to continue into the future.

Master Sergeant Jason Kristbaum

128th Air Refueling Wing, Milwaukee WI

Jason is active duty and his position is Flight Line Production Superintendent. He coordinates all the flights in and out of the base, among other things. This is his 25th year in the Air Force and he is counting down to his retirement. Jason recently returned home from a deployment to Greece. Jason and Kelly and their three kids - Layla (12), Vera (9) and Tanner (5) - live in Waukesha.

Lieutenant Colonel Joseph Kristbaum

Wright-Patterson Air Base, Dayton Ohio

Joseph is active duty and his position is Assistant Professor and Deputy Department Head. He teaches Systems Engineering and Management. This is his 17th year in the Air Force and is also looking forward to retirement after 20 years. Joe, Jess and the boys - Joey (15) and Freddy (11) - recently bought and moved to a hobby farm in Springboro, Ohio.

Jonathan Grey

United States Air Force. Senior Airman.
Active Duty. Eielson Air Force Base, (near Fairbanks) Alaska. Explosive Ordnance Disposal Technician.

Jonathan will be stationed at Eielson for the next 14-15 months, at which time he will either reenlist for another four years or join civilian life again. He and his group are responsible for the deactivation and disposal of unspent ammunition and other explosives. He enjoys his job with the Air Force and is getting himself prepared for the 20+ daily hours of darkness and cold in Fairbanks during the next six months.

2LT Leah Topp

United States Army. Active Duty.

First Lieutenant Leah Topp is currently stationed at Tower Barracks in Graffenwohr, Germany. She works as a Field Artillery Battery Executive Officer, serving as the second in command, overseeing all unit operations, logistics, maintenance, and all rocket ammunition facilitation. She is responsible for the tactical fire direction of 9 M27082 MLRS rocket launchers during operations. She has had the opportunity to work with foreign U.S. military allies from all over Europe during training exercises, and has met soldiers from all over the world. In her free time, Leah travels throughout Europe. Just this year she has been to Rome, Catania and Sicily, Italy; Athens and Corinth, Greece; and Istanbul, Turkey.

Major Sean Daigle, US Air Force

An F-35 pilot, Sean is stationed with his wife, Rachel (nee Sladky), at Eielson Air Force Base in Fairbanks, Alaska. Sean grew up outside of Augusta, Maine, where his parents, Mark and Diane, continue to live. He is a graduate of the United States Air Force Academy and has previously been stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base, Holoman Air Force Base, Osan Air Base in Korea, and Luke Air Force Base. Sean began his Air Force career as an F-16 pilot and transitioned to the F-35 in 2022. He is currently deployed to Japan supporting the United States' mission in the Pacific.

Ensign Thomas Muha

Thomas is a 2025 graduate of the University of Michigan. Thomas was a member of Michigan's Naval ROTC battalion and served as the battalion Physical Training Instructor, Public Affairs Officer, Platoon Chief, and Midshipman Battalion Commanding Officer. In August 2025, Thomas will be stationed in Pensacola, FL where he will begin Flight School as a Student Naval Flight Officer. Thomas is the son of parishioners Jim and Mary Lynn Muha and brother of Klaudia, Katarina, and Alex.
