Acts 8: 26-40; key verse: Acts 8:31

Today we have Mapquest, gps, Google maps, and Google earth. One would think that finding our way would be easy. In reality these things may help us maneuver streets and highways, but we still need guidance that only God can give. In Acts 8, we see the Holy Spirit guide Philip in order for Philip to be a guide to the Ethiopian eunuch. In a similar way, God sends the Holy Spirit to guide you in your life and service for Him.

God gives you the Holy Spirit to guide you. (John 14:16-17; John 16:13)

1. You must be sensitive to the Holy Spirit.

- Abiding in the Word
- Abiding in Worship

2. You must be submissive to the Holy Spirit.

Verse 27 “and he arose and went.”

God’s call may be to:

- An unlikely place
- An unknown place
- An untimely place

God gives you the responsibility to guide others to Christ.

Mark 16:15 And He said to them, “Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation.

IGNITE

A STUDY OF THE BOOK OF ACTS

1. You must receive your responsibility willingly.
2. You must prepare yourself spiritually.
3. You must recognize the spiritual needs around you.
4. You must point people to Jesus Christ.
 - Help them comprehend their sinful condition.
 - Help them comprehend the Savior's provision.
 - Help them comprehend salvation.
 - Help them comprehend the steps that follow salvation.

Take away

1. God can do amazing things through an available servant.
2. Every believer should be ready to share the gospel.
3. Be ready to go any place at any time for God.
