

Examples of ways to reduce your tuition with scrip:

Shopping for your groceries. Weis Market offers 5 percent. Spending $200 monthly on groceries gives you a credit of $120 for the year.

If your child's grandparents shop at Walmart weekly, they could easily spend $200/month. That means you could have $60 credit for the year. (Walmart offers 2.5 percent.)

Aunts and Uncles can help too. Olive Garden and Red Lobster offer 9 percent. If they eat out just once a month spending approximately $25, that would give you $27 for the year.

You can even earn money while on vacation. Hyatt Hotels offer 9 percent. A 5-night stay would cost approximately $500. That's a $45 credit to your account.

Your neighbor can even help by buying gas. The average car uses about 600 gallons per year. Even at $3 per gallon, that's $1800. Sheetz offers 3 percent, which gives you $54 toward tuition.

Have a home-improvement project coming up? Lowes offers 4 percent. A purchase of $300 credits your account with $12.

The possibilities are endless and you are not asking others to buy something they don't need, but instead to remember you with their everyday purchases. This will take some planning ahead, but the benefits will be worth the effort.

TRIP

Tuition Reduction Incentive Program

How would you like to reduce tuition for your child's Christian education?

The purpose of TRIP is to give families the opportunity to raise money and reduce their tuition costs. Each family can put as much time and energy as their resources allow to reduce their tuition costs.

As much as we would like to keep tuition costs low, the fact remains that the cost of educating a child continues to grow.

Financing tuition aid for our school is becoming increasingly difficult to maintain. To assist you, we have found ways for each family to decrease their own tuition by referring students, and implementing the scrip program. This will allow us to strive toward utilizing Serve-a-thon and/or auction proceeds to further our education excellence in the future.

Applications will still be available to eligible families from outside sources such as KCEA, Bridge, and Pennsylvania Family Choice. (These programs are based on income.)
