Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away and desert me. This will fulfill the prophecy of the Scripture that says: I will strike down the shepherd and all the sheep will scatter far and wide. 28 "But after I am risen, I will go ahead of you to Galilee." 29 Then Peter spoke up and said, "Even if all the rest lose their faith and fall away, I will still be beside you, Jesus!" 30 Jesus said, "Mark my words, Peter. This very night, before the rooster crows twice a few hours from now, you will utterly deny that you know me three times." 31 But Peter was insistent and replied emphatically, "I will absolutely not! Under no circumstances will I ever deny you—even if I have to die with you!" And all the others repeated the same thing.

18. Peter's Denials

Luke 22:54-62 TPT

The religious leaders seized Jesus and led him away, but Peter followed from a safe distance. They brought him to the home of the high priest, where people were already gathered out in the courtyard. 55 Someone had built a fire, so Peter inched closer and sat down among them to stay warm. 56 A girl noticed Peter sitting in the firelight. Staring at him, she pointed him out and said, "This man is one of Jesus' disciples!" 57 Peter flatly denied it, saying, "What are you talking about, girl? I don't know him!" 58 A little while later, someone else spotted Peter and said, "I recognize you. You're one of his, I know it!" Peter again said, "I'm not one of his disciples." 59 About an hour later, someone else identified Peter and insisted he was a disciple of Jesus, saying, “Look at him! He’s from Galilee, just like Jesus. I know he’s one of them.” 60 But Peter was adamant. “Listen, I don’t know what you’re talking about. Don’t you understand? I don’t even know him.” While the words were still in his mouth, the rooster crowed. 61 At that moment, the Lord, who was being led through the courtyard by his captors, turned around and gazed at Peter. All at once Peter remembered the words Jesus had prophesied over him, “Before the rooster crows in the morning, you will deny three times that you even know me.” 62 Peter burst into tears, ran off from the crowd, and wept bitterly.

22. Jesus Restores Peter

John 21:15-22 TPT

After they had breakfast, Jesus said to Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you burn with love for me more than these?” Peter answered, “Yes, Lord! You know that I have great affection for you!” “Then take care of my lambs,” Jesus said. 16 Jesus repeated his question the second time, “Simon, son of John, do you burn with love for me?” Peter answered, “Yes, my Lord! You know that I have great affection for you!” “Then take care of my sheep,” Jesus said. 17 Then Jesus asked him again, “Peter, son of John, do you have great affection for me?” Peter was saddened by being asked the third time and said, “My Lord, you know everything. You know that I burn with love for you!” Jesus replied, “Then feed my lambs! 18 Peter, listen, when you were younger you made your own choices and you went where you pleased. But one day when you are old, others will tie you up and escort you where you would not choose to go—and you will spread out your arms.” 19 (Jesus said this to Peter as a prophecy of what kind of death he would die, for the glory of God.) And then he said, “Peter, follow me!” 20 Then Peter turned and saw that the disciple whom Jesus loved was following them. (This was the disciple who sat close to Jesus at the Last Supper and had asked him, “Lord, who is the one that will betray you?”) 21 So when Peter saw him, he asked Jesus, “What’s going to happen to him?” 22 Jesus replied, “If I decide to let him live until I return, what concern is that of yours? You must still keep on following me!”

❖ Peter Takes the Lead

a. Gathers in Prayer and to Select Judas’ Replacement - Acts 1:12-22 TPT

b. Peter and the Other Baptized with Holy Spirit

Acts 2:1-4 TPT

On the day Pentecost was being fulfilled, all the disciples were gathered in one place. 2 Suddenly they heard the sound of a violent blast of wind rushing into the house from out of the heavenly realm. The roar of the wind was so overpowering it was all anyone could bear! 3 Then all at once a pillar of fire appeared before their eyes. It separated into tongues of fire that engulfed each one of them. 4 They were all filled and equipped with the Holy Spirit and were inspired to speak in tongues—empowered by the Spirit to speak in languages they had never learned!

The KJV reads, “And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance.”

Utterance – G669 – apophthengomai – from two root words G575 apo and G5350 phthengomai
To utter a clear sound, to proclaim

G575 apo – means separation, or away

G5350 phthengomai – means to utter a clear sound. From the base of G5346 phemi meaning to make known one's thoughts.

These are heavenly, Spirit-filled utterances

- c. Peter Steps Up to Preach in Response to the Crowd

Acts 2:14-16 TPT

Peter stood up with the eleven apostles and shouted to the crowd. “Listen carefully, my fellow Jews and residents of Jerusalem. You need to clearly understand what’s happening here. 15 These people are not drunk like you think they are, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. 16 This is the fulfillment of what was prophesied through the prophet Joel

Here in verse 14, the same word used for the Holy Ghost utterance in verse 4 is used. Peter is giving a heavenly, Spirit-filled message.

This was no longer the same Peter. He had a confidence, boldness, that was no longer in his own strength, but in his surrendered heart to Jesus.

- h. Peter Walks in Powerful Discernment & Boldness

Acts 5:1-10 TPT

Now, a man named Ananias and his wife, Sapphira, likewise sold their farm. 2 They conspired to secretly keep back for themselves a portion of the proceeds. So when Ananias brought the money to the apostles, it was only a portion of the entire sale. 3 God revealed their secret to Peter, so he said to him, “Ananias, why did you let Satan fill your heart and make you think you could lie to the Holy Spirit? You only pretended to give it all, yet you hid back part of the proceeds from the sale of your property to keep for yourselves. 4 Before you sold it, wasn’t it yours to sell or to keep? And after you sold it, wasn’t the money entirely at your disposal? How could you plot such a thing in your heart? You haven’t lied to people; you’ve lied to God!” 5 The moment Ananias heard those words, he fell over dead. Everyone was terrified when they heard what had happened. 6 Some young men came in and removed the body and buried him. 7 Three hours later, his wife came into the room, with no clue what had happened to her husband. 8 Peter said to her, “Tell me, were the two of you paid this amount for the sale of your land?” Sapphira said, “Yes, that’s how much it was.” 9 Peter told her, “Why have you agreed together to test the Spirit of the Lord? I hear the footsteps of those who buried your husband at the door—they’re coming here to bury you too!” 10 At that moment she dropped dead at Peter’s feet.

- i. The Sick & Possessed are Healed & Delivered by Peter’s Shadow

Acts 5:14-15 TPT

Continually more and more people believed in the Lord and were added to their number—great crowds of both men and women. 15 In fact, when people knew Peter was going to walk by, they carried the sick out to the streets and laid them down on cots and mats, knowing the incredible power emanating from him would overshadow them and heal them.

Acts 9:32-35 TPT

As Peter was ministering from place to place, he visited God's devoted ones in the village of Lydda. 33 He met a man there named Aeneas who had been paralyzed and bedridden for eight years. 34 Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus the Anointed One instantly and divinely heals you. Now, get up and make your bed." 35 All at once he stood to his feet. And when all the people of Lydda and Sharon saw him, they became believers in the Lord.

Acts 9:38-43 TPT

When the believers heard that Peter was nearby in Lydda, they sent two men with an urgent message for him to come without delay. 39 So Peter went with them back to Joppa, and upon arriving they led him to the upper room. There were many widows standing next to Peter, weeping. One after another showed him the tunics and other garments that Tabitha had made to bless others. 40 Peter made them all leave the room. Then he knelt down and prayed. Turning to the dead body, he said, "Tabitha, rise up!" At once she opened her eyes, and seeing Peter, she sat up. 41 He took her by the hand and helped her to her feet. Then he called for the believers and all the widows to come and see that she was alive! 42 The news spread all over the city of Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. 43 Peter remained in Joppa for several more days as a guest at the house of Simon the tanner.
