About United Women in Faith

United Women in Faith - National Organization is the policy-making body that manages and oversees the programs and projects of United Women in Faith (UWFaith). We accomplish this by equipping women and girls around the world to be leaders in communities, agencies, workplaces, governments, and churches and to advocate for the oppressed and dispossessed with special attention to the needs of women and children. UWFaith builds supportive communities among women; engages in activities that foster growth in the Christian faith, mission education, and Christian social involvement, while working for justice through compassionate service and advocacy to change unfair policies and systems while providing educational experiences that lead to personal change in order to transform the world.

Summary of Responsibilities

The Executive Assistant supports and maximizes the efficiency of the General Secretary/CEO and the Treasurer/CFO in one-on-one working relationships and supports the Office of Financial & Asset Management.

The Executive Assistant serves as the primary point of contact for internal and external constituencies on all matters pertaining to the General Secretary. The Executive Assistant also serves as a liaison to the General Secretaries of other United Methodist agencies, Conference and Jurisdiction UWFaith Presidents, Conference and Jurisdiction UWFaith Treasurers. In relation to the Board of Directors and UWFaith donors, the Executive Assistant organizes and coordinates executive outreach and external relations efforts; and when necessary, oversees special projects.

The Executive Assistant must be creative and enjoy working within a small environment that is mission-driven, results-driven and community-oriented. The ideal individual will have the ability to exercise good judgment in a variety of situations, with strong written and verbal communication, administrative, and organizational skills, and the ability to maintain a realistic balance among multiple priorities.

The Executive Assistant will have the ability to work independently on projects, from conception to completion, and must be able to work under pressure at times to handle a wide variety of activities and confidential matters with discretion. This position is not static and will be revised as the needs of the organization evolve.
