

“FLA is the most phenomenal training I have ever taken in the church or in private industry.”

“I’m more confident, more inspired and more prepared to lead the church into the next century.”

“It’s wonderful to be challenged to do new things and to have a group here to support and encourage me.”

“This has been an amazing, transformative opportunity for me and the congregation I serve.”

“I’m a different pastor today than I was before I began my FLA training. FLA has not only helped me be a better financial leader, it has helped me be a more confident and assertive pastor.”

“I dream bigger now.”

“I have so many tools in my financial leadership toolbox that I didn’t have before.”

“FLA has taught me that the spirit of generosity is not so much about money but about how we can appeal to an individual’s heart to encourage them to want to live out the mission to make disciples for Christ.”

Mid-Atlantic
Faith Foundation

In seminary, pastors aren't taught much about fostering a culture of giving or developing programs to fund the ministry.

And yet this is a fundamental part of church leadership today.

The Financial Leadership Academy was founded more than 10 years ago as part of the Mid-Atlantic Faith Foundation's commitment to excellent stewardship and financial leadership education.

Don't just learn – transform your ministry!

The Financial Leadership Academy will keep you focused and teach you critical new skills and approaches. This is not a passive learning experience. Throughout the 11 months, you will lead real change in your church with support from our instructors, coaches, and your own church leadership.

Personalized coaching!

Every FLA scholar is assigned to a coaching cohort, facilitated by a trained coach. Your coach will work with you throughout the program, both in the group and individually, to help you apply your learning and hold you accountable to your goals.

This aspect of the program is the most significant differentiator from other continuing education programs – you will have help applying what you are learning in your own context.

You will gain:

- ✓ Confidence in talking about money in church and with potential donors.
- ✓ In-depth knowledge of all aspects of church finances.
- ✓ Tools to apply the knowledge in your unique setting.

This is an 11-month program from June 2026 to April 2027. There are 5 learning sessions, 3 in person and 2 remote, each lasting 2-1/2 days. The addition of remote learning sessions has allowed us to hold our price steady even as event hosting costs have risen.

- ✓ Learn from exceptional church and finance leaders.
- ✓ Tools to bring your laity into the process.
- ✓ One-on-one coaching support throughout.
- ✓ Friendly accountability from your colleagues!

The five, 2-1/2 day sessions will be held Monday morning through Wednesday lunchtime:

- June 1-3, 2026 (in person)
- July 20-22, 2026 (remote)
- October 19-21, 2026 (in person)
- January 25-27, 2027 (remote)
- April 26-28, 2027 (in person)

- The theology of money and management of personal finances
- Best practices for financial management in the church
- Best practices for cultivating generosity in the church
- Legacy giving, major gifts and capital campaigns
- Alternative funding and how other non-profits do fundraising
- ... and much more!

All in-person sessions will be held at the Eden Resort in Lancaster, PA.

Total cost: $1,200

- $100 deposit due on registration to secure your place in the class.
- The balance will be due in two equal ($550) payments in April 2026 and February 2027.
- Deadline to register- May 1, 2026

Mid-Atlantic Faith Foundation

The Mid-Atlantic Faith Foundation is committed to empowering all churches to fund their mission and ministry for years to come. With over 300 past FLA graduates, we have many success stories to share - pastors who have transformed their fundraising success as a direct result of this training.
