

Lanham United Methodist Church
Music Director (Open Until Filled)

Lanham United Methodist Church is seeking a Music Director. Under the supervision of the pastor, the Director provides music for Sunday Service and is responsible for the church music program. The Director is responsible for implementing an effective and well-rounded music program (vocal and instrumental) for Sunday worship services and special designated holiday worship services throughout the Church year, January 1 through December 31. The Music Director coordinates the music for Sunday worship and other worship throughout the year. Starting Salary $18,000 per year.

Knowledge required: Ability to direct and supervise vocal, instrumental, and ensembles and to play the piano and organ, at an advanced level. Ability to organize and schedule musical repertoire to coincide with and to reflect appropriately the Scriptures, the liturgical year, and special Church events. Knowledge of the full range of sacred music compositions, including classical, traditional, and contemporary. Knowledge of the Scriptures and their relationship to the liturgical year.

Applications can be submitted: By email to lumc@lumcmd.org; by mail to Lanham United Methodist Church, 5512 Whitfield Chapel Road, Lanham, MD 20706