Mr. Neves

Gerald Near (b. 1942)

CHIMING OF THE HOUR

GREETING AND PASSING OF THE PEACE

Pastor: May the peace of the Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Pastor: Let us greet one another with the peace of Christ.

PEALING OF THE BELL AND SILENT PRAYER OF PREPARATION

We must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters, as is right, because your faith is growing abundantly, and the love of every one of you for one another is increasing. To this end we always pray for you, asking that our God will make you worthy of his call and will fulfill by his power every good resolve and work of faith, so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

– 2 Thessalonians 1:3, 11-12

CHORAL INTROIT

Sovereign and Transforming Grace

Jane Marshall, 1992

Sovereign and transforming Grace, we invoke your quickening power;

Reign the spirit of this place, bless the purpose of this hour.

–Frederick H. Hedge; 1829; alt.

✦ CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Come, let us worship the God who came to seek and save the lost.

People: Let us worship the God who came to seek and save each one of us.

Leader: Let us welcome God into our homes and our hearts.

People: Let us enter this place fully present, that we might come to better know God.

Leader: Let us allow Christ to see us and call us by name, meeting us right where we are.

People: Let us be open to a change of heart and life, to make amends for things past.

All: Come, let us joyfully and gratefully worship the Lord!

CALL TO CONFESSION

✦ please stand as you are able

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord, we confess there are things in our lives we want to change, but we aren't sure how: our priorities, our busyness, our compulsion to have more, and our need to be in charge. Forgive us, Lord. Where we are anxious, make us adventurous; where we are driven, help us rest; where responsibilities overwhelm us, help us be realistic; where our quiet time has slipped away, help us make space for you; where our hands remain clenched in greed and scarcity, help us open them in faith. And as the demands of each day arrive, help us welcome them with a sense of peace instead of fear.

Silent prayers of confession are offered.

Forgive us, Lord, when we are slow to see opportunities for change in our lives and in the lives of others. May we never turn away those you would welcome, or turn aside from your welcome to us. But may we grow in faith, trust, and generosity, and walk more closely with Jesus, our friend and guide in whose name we pray. Amen.

RESPONSIVE PSALM

Psalm 119:137-144

Leader: You are righteous, O LORD, and your judgments are right.

People: You have appointed your decrees in righteousness and in all faithfulness.

Leader: Your promise is well tried, and your servant loves it.

People: I am small and despised, yet I do not forget your precepts.

Leader: Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and your law is the truth.

People: Trouble and anguish have come upon me, but your commandments are my delight.

Leader: Your decrees are righteous forever; give me understanding that I may live.

The Word of the Lord;

All: Thanks be to God.

SERMON

“How to See When You’re Short”

Rev. Pattison

✦ HYMN 182

I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say

Kingsfold

✦ AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (from The Second Helvetic Confession, 1566, Switzerland)

The examples in the Gospel teach us how vigilant and diligent the penitent ought to be in striving for newness of life and in mortifying the old self and quickening the new. Jesus recommends diligence and a careful devotion, so that we should strive by all means, and beseech God in prayers, lest we fall back into sins from which we have been resurrected. Zacchaeus the publican, whom the Lord had received back into favor, exclaims in the Gospel: “Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have defrauded any one of anything, I restore it fourfold.”

Therefore, in the same way we preach that restitution and compassion, and even almsgiving, are necessary for those who truly repent, and we exhort all people everywhere in the words of the apostle: “Do not yield your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but yield yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments of righteousness.”

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD’S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever...

AMEN (sung by the choir)

John Stainer (1840-1901)

ANTHEM FOR CHOIR AND ORGAN

I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light

Kathleen Thomerson, 1970;
arr. Paul O. Manz, 2000

I want to walk as a child of the light.

I want to follow Jesus.

God set the stars to give light to the world.

The star of my life is Jesus.

I want to see the brightness of God.

I want to look at Jesus.

Clear Sun of Righteousness, shine on my path

and show me the way to the Father.

In him there is no darkness at all. The night and the day are both alike.

The Lamb is the light of the city of God. Shine in my heart, Lord Jesus.

I'm looking for the coming of Christ. I want to be with Jesus.

When we have run with patience the race, we shall know the joy of Jesus.

—Kathleen Thomerson, 1966

FOLLOWING WORSHIP

A special celebration and refreshments in honor of Juan Velasquez will be in the Assembly Room following worship. All are welcome! (The Assembly Room can be found by exiting the front right doors.)

Welcome to Rye Presbyterian Church

General Information

If you are a guest today, we welcome you and hope you are enriched and inspired by this time of worship. To learn more about the ongoing life of the church, please go to ryepc.com/im-new/ and fill out the welcome form online.

If you or a family member need to step out of the sanctuary during worship, please feel free to do so. There is live audio from the service in the narthex at the back of the sanctuary and live video in the church library.

Children and Childcare

Our team of dedicated staff and volunteers is available to care for children 3 months to 3 years old while parents attend worship services. Childcare can be found on the first floor of the Education Wing.

If you have any questions, please reach out to Anne A. Halloin at ahalloin@ryepc.com.

To help children feel welcomed and engaged during worship, Rainbow Bags – filled with crayons, books, and coloring pages – are located in boxes at each sanctuary entrance door.

Please return Rainbow Bags following worship.

Hearing Assistance

The sanctuary is equipped with an induction loop assistive listening system. To access the system, please switch your hearing aid setting to “T” (telephone).

Grace Notes Newsletter

Pick up one of our full-color monthly church newsletters, available at every sanctuary entrance: includes photos, updates, articles, and devotions from pastors. It is also available digitally through email, along with our website’s resources page at ryepc.com/grace-notes-newsletter/.

Saying Farewell to Juan Velasquez

Sunday, November 9, 2025

To celebrate Juan, all are invited to come to a special coffee hour in the Assembly Room following worship on Sunday, November 9.

Cake and light brunch will be served!

It is with hearts full of gratitude that we announce the retirement of Juan Velasquez, our Head Sexton and Building Manager. Juan began work at RPC in 2009 as the evening sexton, cleaning the nursery school and church after hours. In 2012, his role expanded as he became our Day Sexton and eventual Building Manager. Over the last 16 years, Juan has worked tirelessly and faithfully behind the scenes – setting up for countless meetings and events, tending the many facets of all the RPC buildings, coordinating cleaning and outside contractors, and acting as a gracious presence at weddings, funerals, and columbarium interments. In 2024, he received the Davidson Gordon Quiet Service Award for not only his great work, but the spirit of care, kindness, and hospitality that have exemplified his time at RPC.

In December, Juan will be returning to Colombia to be with his extended family.

All are invited to contribute!

All are invited to contribute to a farewell purse in honor of Juan's years of faithful service and work in our midst. To do so, you may give online at ryepc.com/farewell. Alternatively, you may send a check to the church with "Juan" in the memo line.

Juan, you will be greatly missed!

DISCUSSION WITH AUTHOR LISA A. PHILLIPS

Thursday • November 13 • 7:30 p.m.
Rye Presbyterian Church Chapel

Wish you could help the youth in your life navigate crushes, dating, and breakups?

Join author, journalist, and professor Lisa A. Phillips as she presents her new book, First Love: Guiding Teens Through Relationships and Heartbreak, in a joint event sponsored by RPC and Community Synagogue of Rye.

In conversation with Rev. Cari, Lisa will share what she learned from teens, parents, and mental health experts about navigating the new realities of teen relationships. The conversation will include audience discussion and Q&A. This event is open to all adults who wish to support the teens and young adults in their lives, and youth are also welcome to attend!

First Love is available at Arcade Books in Rye and will be on sale in the Chapel at Rye Presbyterian Church before and after the event.

DISCUSSION WITH AUTHOR LISA A. PHILLIPS

Thursday • November 13 • 7:30 p.m.
Rye Presbyterian Church Chapel

About the Author: Lisa A. Phillips

Lisa A. Phillips has written about relationships, mental health, and teens for The New York Times, The Washington Post, Longreads, Psychology Today, Cosmopolitan, Salon, and other outlets. She teaches journalism and the popular “Love and Heartbreak” seminar at SUNY New Paltz. She’s published two previous books: Unrequited: The Thinking Woman’s Guide to Romantic Obsession and Public Radio: Behind the Voices. Phillips began her journalism career in public radio, working for radio stations in the Midwest and Northeast for more than a decade. A member of the Jewish Congregation of Woodstock, she lives in the Hudson Valley — where she and Cari became friends through a shared book club.

About First Love: Guiding Teens Through Relationships and Heartbreak

Today’s young people are beginning their love lives in a time of rapidly changing ideas and ideals about identity, commitment, sexuality, and consent. For parents, the new realities of teenage relationships can be both mystifying and daunting.

In First Love, Lisa A. Phillips chronicles the challenges today’s adolescents face as they navigate experiences of crushes, dating, and breakups—and the challenges adults face as they strive to provide guidance and support. Phillips sheds light on how the relationships teens have today are different from their parents’ generation, including their reliance on technology and social media, the rise of young people identifying as LGBTQ+, high rates of depression and anxiety, and consent consciousness. She provides concrete strategies and insights from experts and teens themselves on ways parents and other adults can help young people cope with the timeless issues of love and heartbreak.

NOVEMBER 16, AT 6:30 P.M.

A Service of Contemplative Prayer

DECEMBER 21, AT 7:00 P.M.

Hope and Healing on the Longest Night of the Year

These monthly services, each approximately 40 minutes in duration, provide an opportunity to worship at the close of the day.

The intimacy of the chapel, coupled with its warm acoustics and decorative flexibility, enables clarity and resonance in the sung and spoken word.

YOUTH VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY – RAINBOW RUN

Tuesday, November 11, at 8:30 a.m. to 3:15 p.m.

Middle School Connection will help the Rye Youth Council host their annual Rainbow Run. This positive event aims to encourage community support for mental health. There will be volunteers along the 1 mile course throwing colored powder to help cheer the runners on! Middle School Volunteers will gather at the Rye Town Park pavilion at 8:30 a.m. to help set up the course for the morning Elementary School run. We'll have lunch together at the pavilion before preparing to run ourselves! The Middle School run begins at 1:45 p.m. and goes until 3:15 p.m. If you would like to join us, please sign up online: Rainbow Run Sign-Up
