SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading

You humble of the land, seek justice and humility, and the Lord will be your protection (Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13).

Psalm

The Lord blesses the humble and gives them the heavenly kingdom (Psalm 146).

Second Reading

God chose the weak of the world, those who count for nothing, so that whoever boasts should boast in the Lord (1 Corinthians 1:26-31).

Gospel

Jesus taught from the mountain: Blessed are the poor in spirit (Matthew 5:1-12a).

The Presentation of the Lord

REFLECT

THE PEOPLE OF GOD'S KINGDOM

In our Gospel reading from Matthew, we hear the Beatitudes, the stirring opening to the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus is proclaiming the coming of the kingdom of God, and begins by considering what kind of people will enter and participate in this kingdom. They are the poor in spirit, the meek, the clean of heart, the peacemakers. We hear both Zephaniah and Paul echo this, as God specifically chooses the weak and the lowly to be God's agents in ushering in the reign of God. By living with humility and integrity, their hearts are open to being transformed by the grace of God. We too are called to live in this way. Jesus invites us to be people with open hearts, to receive God's blessing. And working through us, God may bless all of creation.

PONDER

Candlemas (February 2)

Thanks to Pope Sergius I (687-701), on February 2 we celebrate the Presentation of the Lord. On this day we also commemorate the Purification of Mary, who complied with the Jewish law (Leviticus 12:1). The law indicated that a mother should be purified forty days after giving birth to a boy child. Since the eleventh century the Purification of Mary and the Presentation of the Lord have been celebrated with the blessing of all the candles and candlesticks that are going to be used during the year. This is done with the hope that there will never be a lack of light, either material or spiritual, in the houses of the faithful. The root of the word candlemas is the Latin verb candere ("to shine") and from which also come the words candelabra and candlestick. This feast of candles recalls that Christians can, like Simon and the prophetess Anna in the temple, say that they also have seen salvation: Jesus the true Light who shines in the arms of Mary (Luke 2:25-38).

WORSHIP

NOW, MASTER, YOU MAY LET YOUR SERVANT GO IN PEACE, ACCORDING TO YOUR WORD,

for my eyes have seen Your salvation,

WHICH YOU PREPARED IN THE SIGHT OF ALL THE PEOPLES: A LIGHT FOR REVELATION TO THE GENTILES, AND GLORY FOR YOUR PEOPLE ISRAEL.

Fully Alive

Liturgical Living for Every Day

Concelebrant's Gestures

When more than one priest has vested to celebrate the same Mass, concelebrants use a series of gestures during the Eucharistic Prayer (General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 216). When only the main celebrant prays aloud, the other priests fold their hands. When they all pray aloud together, they all extend their hands.

A little before the consecration, the main celebrant brings his hands together, palms down, and extends them over the offerings. Other concelebrants should make the same gesture from where they stand, using both hands. They are praying that the Holy Spirit will change the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ.

During the consecration, as the main celebrant holds the bread and then the chalice while repeating the words of Christ, concelebrants may extend their right hand toward these offerings. This unique gesture is probably intended as a way for the other priests to point. The gesture goes with "This"-as in "This is my Body." (Notitiae 1 [1965] 143, no. 34). To perform this action, concelebrants extend their right hand with the palm to the side, rather than down. This keeps the gesture distinct from the one made earlier with both hands.

The gesture during the consecration is made "if this seems appropriate," but almost all concelebrants use it. However, it is also acceptable for them to make no gesture at all. The concelebrants could just look at the altar while saying the words of consecration.

However the priests gesture, they help the people offer the Eucharistic Prayer. The change in gestures alerts the faithful to the development of the prayer from words of thanksgiving to words of petition, and into a sense of wonder as the Holy Spirit makes really present the Body and Blood of Christ.

Hey Family,
Let's Talk About This!

Have you ever noticed what the Priest does during the Liturgy of the Eucharist?

How many priests do you normally see at Mass? Have you ever been to a Mass with multiple priests?

Prayer for Vocations

Jesus, you are the Good Shepherd. You know each of us and call us by name. Help us to respond generously to your voice by opening our hearts to discern your holy will. We pray especially for those whom you are calling to serve the church as priests, deacons, sisters, and brothers. Give courage and guidance to all, so that we may respond to your call and serve you devoutly.

FEB 4-5

FEAST OF ST. BLAISE

February 4-5 | At all Masses

At the end of all Masses the weekend of February 4-5 we will celebrate our devotion to Saint Blaise with the Blessing of Throats. As part of the church tradition, we have the blessing of throat on the feast of St. Blaise (February 3rd). We will also have a blessing of the throats on his feast day during Morning Mass. St. Blaise was bishop of Sebaste in Armenia in the fourth century. Before being martyred, he is said to have healed a boy who was choking. Since the eighth century, Saint Blaise has been venerated as the patron of those who suffer from diseases of the throat. As we receive the blessing of throat, we ask for protection from afflictions of the throat and from other illnesses.

LITTLE LAMBS PRESCHOOL PROGRAM MISSION

To provide a positive preschool experience that helps develop social skills, promotes independence, and fosters a love of learning. Little Lambs will provide a caring, faith filled, Catholic environment. Little Lambs will recognize the "Whole Child" as a child of God, and appreciate them for who God created them to be. We will partner with Parents to ensure the child follows the teachings of the Catholic Faith, Jesus Christ, and that they grow to answer the call of God's voice.

LITTLE LAMBS PHILOSOPHY

Little Lambs believes in the God given blessings and gifts of each child. By providing the opportunity to know God, through traditional Catholic culture, and by working with parents as partners, we will work to catechize and enrich our children's lives academically, socially, and spiritually with Christian and Catholic World-View

AGES SERVED

Children between 2 & 5 years old.

Yearlings Class: Must be 2 years old by Sept. 1st 2021

Children in Lambs, Sheep (Students 3 years and older) & Shepherds (Students 4 years and older) must be toilet trained

Little Lambs always begins each school year on the first Tuesday after Labor day.

Classes start in September and go through the middle of May.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Our program strives to foster a sense of dignity and independence; readying the child for either a follow-on PreK program and/or directly to Kindergarten. It is filled with academic enrichment with a focus on socialization development. Social interaction is enormously important for early learning. Social interactions might include physical activities, dialog development, (speech) language development, and imaginative play. Socialization might also include lessons of sharing, taking turns, and cooperating, and games that teach different learning strategies.

There is a specific curriculum for each class. It is imperative for early-childhood development to practice the cultures and experience lessons in social development in a safe and loving, and nurturing environment.

We aim to provide such an environment centered on our Catholic Faith. The right environment will foster maturity with strong language skills, creative thinking skills, and attributes of empathy, good communication, and self-confidence. A Christ centered environment will lead a child to realize their human dignity and allow them to prosper and grow according to God's plan for the whole child.

CATECHEIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

Our children ages 2-5 attend Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atrium as part of their Religion program at Little Lambs. For more information on what this program offers for Faith Formation, visit: <https://www.cgsusa.org/>

Kindergarten Readiness Enrichment Program is for students who will be eligible for Kindergarten the following school year. The goal of this program is to increase the student's developmental level of learning in key areas as well as enhance learning through cognitive instruction and play. This includes vocabulary building, reasoning and problem solving.

The Good Shepherd Little Lambs Preschool Program is open to all children regardless of race, creed or ethnic origin.
