REFLECT

GOD EVER PURSUES US

We hear today of God's unrelenting pursuit of us. Our readings tell stories of God's intense desire to share the divine life with us. From Exodus, we see how God shows endless persistence and compassion, even to those who grumble against God, or seem to have forgotten God. From the Gospel of John, we hear of how Jesus, in his extended conversation with the Samaritan woman, gives her dignity, names uncomfortable truths, and gradually leads her into a new path of faith. We can have confidence that as we bring our own confusions, fears, and failings to God, we may receive God's mercy and forgiveness. God always persists and continually finds new ways to invite people into unity with God. As Paul describes in Romans, in the cross we see how God will go to any length to demonstrate the depth and breadth of divine love.

PONDER

The Three Lenten Disciplines: Prayer

Fasting, almsgiving, and prayer are not specifically Christian practices. Jewish piety, from which the primitive church developed, already included these three spiritual exercises. The Muslims also include these three in the five pillars of their Islamic faith. But it is Jesus himself who invites us to practice these three pillars of conversion. He reminds us that they are not done to "show off" that we are holier than everyone else. On the contrary, fasting, charitable works, and praying are done with humility (Matthew 6:1-6; 16-21). It is challenging, but we are not discouraged because the Holy Spirit comes to our aid.

The Lenten discipline of prayer can be thought of in two ways. For Christians, to pray in the first way is to speak like children to God, who loves us as mother, father, sibling, and friend. When speaking to God, we tell God what we have inside us, trusting that our words are the ones that most please God. The second approach to prayer means proclaiming with confidence our fears, problems, joys, and yearnings to God, knowing that God loves and hears us. Praying either way means spending time with God, at times talking, at times silent, but always with the assurance that we are loved.

Fully Alive

Liturgical Living for Every Day

RCIA

If you are interested in joining the Catholic Church, you'll hear about something called RCIA. The initials stand for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, which is the book ministers use to guide one through the stages and steps of church membership.

If you've never been baptized, and you are old enough to read this, you begin your preparation with a time of inquiry in what is called the Precatechumenate. During this time, you have some spiritual conversation about God and the church.

Once you decide to follow Jesus Christ, you celebrate the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens. As a catechumen, you are considered a member of the Church in a broad sense. Unmarried catechumens may have a Catholic wedding; deceased catechumens may have a Catholic funeral.

During the Period of the Catechumenate, you become acquainted with what the Church teaches, you follow the Christian way of life, you engage in liturgical prayer, and you help spread the Gospel (see RCIA, 75). The time span for this preparation varies.

This period of formation closes with the Rite of Election, when the Church proclaims that God has chosen you for the sacraments. Normally, the bishop celebrates this liturgy at the cathedral on the First Sunday of Lent. This marks the beginning of the third stage in the process.

During the Period of Purification and Enlightenment, you make your spiritual preparation for Baptism. This period usually coincides with Lent.

Finally, you celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation: Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist. This usually takes place during the Easter Vigil at your parish.

As a new Catholic, you deepen your participation through the Period of Mystagogy by meditating, praying, and doing works of charity.

If you have already been baptized, this preparation will be tailored to your needs so "that no greater burden than necessary" will delay "the establishment of communion and unity" (RCIA, 473).

Hey Family,
Let's Talk About This!

What is a catechumen?

How many stages of RCIA are there for catechumens?

When is the most likely time you would celebrate the sacraments of initiation?

Prayer for Vocations

Jesus, you are the Good Shepherd. You know each of us and call us by name. Help us to respond generously to your voice by opening our hearts to discern your holy will. We pray especially for those whom you are calling to serve the church as priests, deacons, sisters, and brothers. Give courage and guidance to all, so that we may respond to your call and serve you devoutly.

Miscarriage occurs in around 1 out of every 4 recognized pregnancies and around 24,000 babies are still born in the United States each year. We have a ministry right here in our parish dedicated to helping mothers and fathers who are suffering the loss of their child in these often unspoken of ways. Mary's Angels is an outreach to those who find themselves in the bereavement process following the loss of a baby through miscarriage or stillbirth. We are not counselors or therapists, but women who have sadly endured our own loss of a baby and are committed to helping those who regrettably have traveled the same road.
