ANointing OF THE SICK

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (#1514-1515) teaches that this sacrament is not only for those at the point of death, but for anyone seriously ill or facing serious surgery. In fact, it is preferred that parishioners entering the hospital for surgery should ask the priest for this sacrament before being admitted. Parishioners should never wait until the last minute to call. We encourage parishioners facing surgery to let the parish priest know of their condition before entering the hospital so that they can be anointed before admission.

Shepherd's Corner

I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me

He is risen! ALLELUIA!

First, a big thanks to all who made our Easter Celebrations a spiritual and joyous event. All our ministries did an excellent job of helping us keep this a solemn yet joyous celebration. And a special thank you to the parish staff, especially Sr. Michelle, who are usually called upon at the last minute to address something that unexpectedly cropped up. But, most of all, thank YOU to our parishioners and the families who came and filled the church to overflowing. Your participation in the liturgies encouraged us all to thank God for his many blessings during this most holy season. But the problem with lists is that, inadvertently, the chances are that I missed someone. So, if I did, please be merciful to me.

Speaking of mercy, don't be upset when I tell you there are 242 days left until Christmas! Whew! Not sharing that with you was one of the things I gave up for Lent, and it was more difficult than I thought. It was even more difficult when people would come up to me after Mass and ask how many days. The temptation was great, but I remained steadfast!

Today, we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. While we recognize that the death and resurrection of Jesus was a sign for us of the immense love God has for humanity, we often forget and get wrapped up in our own agendas. So, throughout history, when sin clouded our understanding of His love, mystics were given the message to bring us back into God's presence and experience his Divine Mercy.

The first mystic I can find that talked specifically of this love occurred around the year 1300 when Europe was experiencing a severe famine and suffering from the Black Plague. St. Gertrude began to have a series of visions of the love God, especially how his heart overflowed with love for us. In her visions, St. Gertrude was rested her head near Jesus' side and heard his heartbeat. She was told that her revelation of Jesus' Sacred Heart was given for the times "when the world, having grown cold, would have need to rekindle its love."

About 300 years later, when Europe was facing numerous wars and famines, a similar vision was granted to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque about the Sacred Heart of Jesus. St. Margaret Mary was commissioned to spread devotion to Jesus' Sacred Heart to help heal the spiritual and political coldness of those times.

Before the start of World War II, there were, again, major political and economic instabilities happening throughout the world, and St. Faustina was granted the vision of Jesus pleading with us to "Trust in Him." He asked that the image of Divine Mercy be painted to rekindle our hearts to foster a sincere trust and recognition of God's love for us.

This year, I noticed the amazing similarities between the prayers of Sts. Gertrude and Faustina which were given in their visions, 600 years apart.

- Saint Gertrude prayer: Eternal Father, I offer You the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus Christ, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, those in the Universal Church, in my home, and in my family.
- Saint Faustina prayer: Eternal Father, I offer You the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Your Dearly Beloved Son, Our Lord, Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

May we, filled with gratitude, love, and trust open our hearts to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and pray for his mercy on our world today.

Peace and Blessings,
Fr. Mike

COMING UP AT GSCC

MAY 3/4

MAY CROWNING

Saturday, May 3 & Sunday, May 4
After All Masses | Marian Garden

For centuries, the Church has set aside the entire month of May to honor Mary, Mother of God. The tradition of depicting Mary with a crown originates in the fifth century. At our parish, we will honor Mary with a May Crowning Ceremony at the end of all Masses, in the Marian Garden, on the weekend of May 3 & 4. Flowers will be provided for the children to carry in the procession, then place them at Mary's statue. Throughout the month of May, all are invited to bring flowers for Mary at her statue in the Church to honor her as our Mother and Queen of Heaven and Earth.

MAY 2

SOCIAL SENIORS

Friday, May 2
12:00pm | St. Aloysius Gonzaga

Join us to meet up with old friends and make some new ones! This month, parishioners Gloria and Bill J. will share their testimony. We will have an appetizer and salad potluck. Drinks provided.
