ANOINTING OF THE SICK

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (#1514-1515) teaches that this sacrament is not only for those at the point of death, but for anyone seriously ill or facing serious surgery. In fact, it is preferred that parishioners entering the hospital for surgery should ask the priest for this sacrament before being admitted. Parishioners should never wait until the last minute to call. We encourage parishioners facing surgery to let the parish priest know of their condition before entering the hospital so that they can be anointed before admission.

Shepherd's Corner

I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me

Today's gospel is one that is usually used for talking about vocations. Jesus tells his disciples to pray for people to spread the message of God's love. I know we pray the rosary on Thursday night before Mass for an increase in vocations. We also have a Vocations Team who works in conjunction with the Diocese to find ways to promote vocations. But they can only do so much. One of the things that we all can do is keep our eyes open, because many of the vocations, both diocesan and religious life, are because someone invited them to consider that way of life. I know I personally can speak from experience how important the invitation is.

I remember one Sunday going to Mass at a neighboring parish. For full disclosure, I went to that parish because their Sunday Mass schedule allowed me a time to meet my Sunday obligation, but also to be able to join my friends for a party later that day. As I was leaving church with the thought of the party on my mind, a lady came up to me and said, "I was watching you. Did you ever think of the priesthood?" I looked at her and said a very quick "yes," and then walked away. She didn't know it, but I didn't like that question because I was wrestling with God about the vocational call. I didn't feel holy enough to be a priest. Plus, I didn't know if I could "give up" the things I had. Now, with her asking me that question, I had to really delve into asking if I wanted to do my will or God's will.

Currently, Fort Worth is blessed to have many seminarians studying for the priesthood, but there are also older priests who have served for many years that may need to retire. So, keep your eyes open for potential vocations. Don't nag or pressure anyone, but if you see someone you think would make a good priest or religious, simply pose the question and let God do the rest of the work.

Now on a different note, in our gospel today, we hear Jesus say, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." You will see that Scripture coming to life a week from today. Beginning next Sunday, the friars will be off to Pennsylvania for our annual gathering. Next Sunday, our Masses will be celebrated by Fr. Pepe Ruiz, S.J. from Montserrat Retreat House. Then, from Monday through Saturday morning (July 14-19) there will be no daily Masses or Confessions. If the weather cooperates with the airplanes, the friars will be back and we can resume normal operations beginning with confessions on Saturday, July 19, at 3:30pm.

While we are in Loretto, the friars will be able to visit and share fraternity with those folks we haven't seen since last year (Yea!). We will have some time for business meetings (Sigh!). And, we will have time to celebrate with those who have major jubilees (50 and 25 years) of profession and ordination (Yea!). And another added plus for me is a week of a little cooler weather. 😊

Peace and Blessings,
Fr. Mike

An Introduction to

INNER HEALING

He heals the broken-hearted and bandages their wounds.
Psalm 147:3

JULY 15 - SEPTEMBER 2 | 7:00PM | UPPER ROOM

STILL CARRYING THE WEIGHT OF OLD WOUNDS?

You're not alone—and you don't have to stay stuck.

If you're navigating anxiety, trust issues, codependency, self-doubt, anger, or even just a quiet sense that something inside still hurts...
this is for you.

An Introduction to Inner Healing is for real people dealing with real stuff—past trauma, emotional scars, relational hurt. When life has left marks on your heart, Jesus meets you there—not with shame, but with healing.

We invite you into a process where:

- Old pain gets brought into the light
- Toxic patterns start to break
- You reconnect with God, others, and yourself

Inner Healing is about finally letting Jesus touch those deep places where hurt still lingers. No hype. Just healing. Real freedom is possible. And it starts here.

HOLY TRINITY

CATHOLIC SCHOOL

WITH COMPANY MATCHING!

Did you know that many employers will match charitable giving to schools – including Holy Trinity – even if they won't match tithing to our parish?

Because Holy Trinity Catholic School is an educational institution, it qualifies for matching programs even when churches are excluded. Therefore, financially supporting our parish school is a wonderful way to make your charitable giving go further while still supporting our parish community. You can even elect to support tuition assistance programs for families right here at our parish!
