ANointing OF THE SICK

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (#1514-1515) teaches that this sacrament is not only for those at the point of death, but for anyone seriously ill or facing serious surgery. In fact, it is preferred that parishioners entering the hospital for surgery should ask the priest for this sacrament before being admitted. Parishioners should never wait until the last minute to call. We encourage parishioners facing surgery to let the parish priest know of their condition before entering the hospital so that they can be anointed before admission.

Shepherd's Corner

I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me

Two Christian businessmen were having lunch in a downtown restaurant. As the server was bringing their food, she slipped and dumped a bowl of hot soup right over one of the men. Everybody gasped and stared. The rest of the customers watched and waited for the manager to run out and fire, or at least reprimand, the server. Some were silently hoping for the man, drenched in chicken noodle soup, to shout at her clumsiness. Instead, what happened was the man looked at that server and said, "Young lady, I am so sorry this happened to you. I know it embarrasses you." — How would you have handled that situation?

The Gospel today reminds us of the way Christians are supposed to act. Christians are to be recognized by the way they love each other. Doesn't that sound easy? I think we all know it's not. How many times have we heard or maybe even said, "I love them, but I don't like them"? Is that compatible with the way Jesus showed us how to live? Each of us has our own needs, agendas and desires, and putting the needs or concerns of someone else first takes a lot of grace and strength.

Since Easter, our first reading has been about the beginnings of the early Church. I often see the wonders of the disciples in the early Church: 3,000 men being baptized after Peter preached, the angel letting the apostles out of prison, etc. Yet how often do we gloss over the trials the early Church withstood and the way they endured their suffering for being Christian: "...rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name."

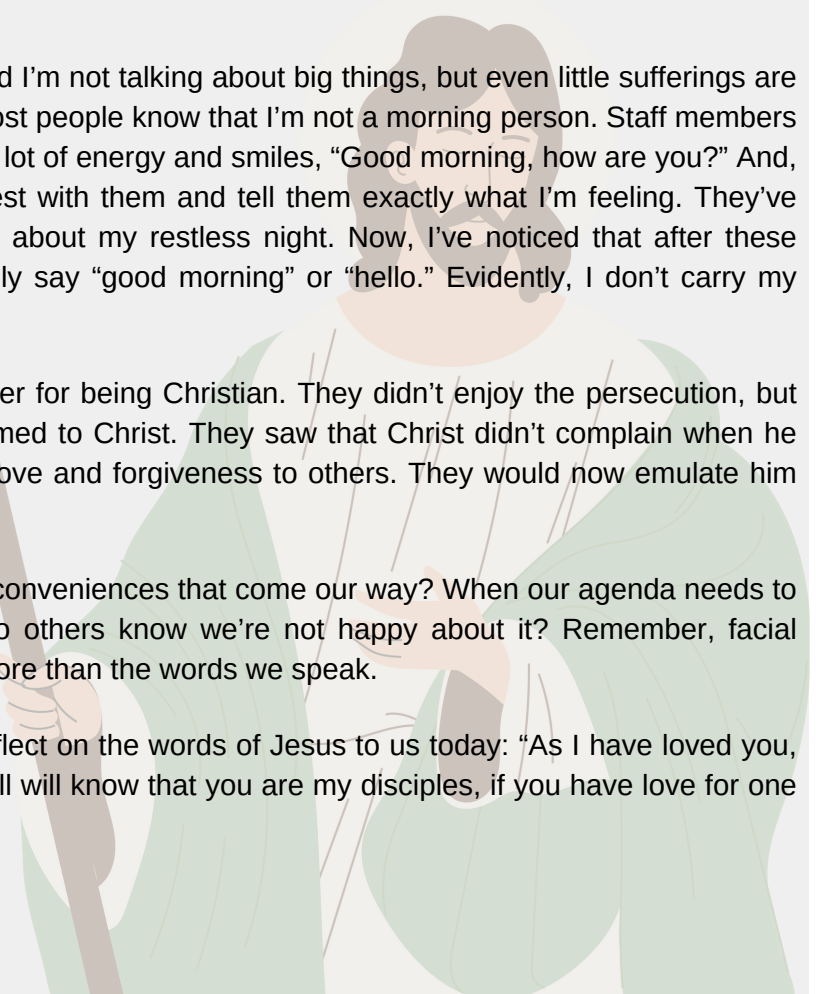

I don't know about you, but I don't like to suffer. And I'm not talking about big things, but even little sufferings are unpleasant for me, and consequently for others. Most people know that I'm not a morning person. Staff members working in the parish office used to greet me with a lot of energy and smiles, "Good morning, how are you?" And, since they cared enough to ask, I'd often be honest with them and tell them exactly what I'm feeling. They've heard about this ache or pain, and they've heard about my restless night. Now, I've noticed that after these mornings of me telling it like it is, they tend to only say "good morning" or "hello." Evidently, I don't carry my burdens well.

The early Church was excited to be worthy to suffer for being Christian. They didn't enjoy the persecution, but they recognized that their lives were being conformed to Christ. They saw that Christ didn't complain when he was carrying his cross, but continued to offer his love and forgiveness to others. They would now emulate him and do the same.

How are we with those big or small sufferings or inconveniences that come our way? When our agenda needs to be changed or something doesn't go our way, do others know we're not happy about it? Remember, facial expressions and the rolling of the eyes often say more than the words we speak.

These are just some thoughts to process as we reflect on the words of Jesus to us today: "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Peace and Blessings,
Fr. Mike

Arrangements will be of seasonal flowers only, no exotics, and are ordered by the Art & Environment committee only.

Donations of any amount are accepted. Outside of the seasons of Easter and Christmas no more than 3 arrangements can be on the church altar, two placed near the candles and one in front of the Ambo. The parish bulletin will no longer have acknowledgements of these donations monthly.

OUR PARISH SCHOOL

HOLY TRINITY — CATHOLIC SCHOOL —

is teaching far beyond the tests, with scores to prove it!

Holy Trinity students consistently score above the national average on assessments and are some of the highest performers at their high schools of choice. In fact, this year, our 4th-7th graders scored an average of 20% higher than the national average on their Iowa Assessments and were in the top 2 performing local Catholic schools in ELA and Math for all grade levels. Our 8th graders also scored 25% higher over the last three years than the national average on the Classic Learning Test!

This is all a testament to our phenomenal teachers, our classical curriculum, and our students who experience the joy of learning and critical thinking. We are so proud of their accomplishments!
