ANOINTING OF THE SICK

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (#1514-1515) teaches that this sacrament is not only for those at the point of death, but for anyone seriously ill or facing serious surgery. In fact, it is preferred that parishioners entering the hospital for surgery should ask the priest for this sacrament before being admitted. Parishioners should never wait until the last minute to call. We encourage parishioners facing surgery to let the parish priest know of their condition before entering the hospital so that they can be anointed before admission.

Shepherd's Corner

I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me

In the second reading today, Saint Paul is writing to the Thessalonians, a group of Christians living in the city of Thessaloniki in Greece. I like this passage because it appears regularly in our Liturgy of the Hours. The line that always makes me take notice is when Saint Paul writes, "We hear that some are conducting themselves among you in a disorderly way, by not keeping busy but minding the business of others." The translation which appears in the Liturgy of the Hours in my opinion is much more direct. It says, "some are acting like busy-bodies."

When I hear the word busy-body, my first thought is Gladys Kravitz from the television show Bewitched. Do you remember her? She was annoying. She was always sticking her nose where it didn't belong and driving her husband, Abner, crazy along the way. (Although as I write this, I realize he must have had a deep love for her because, even after all her antics, they stayed together.) Mrs. Kravitz would spy on the neighbors through the curtains of her front window or make a nuisance of herself by continually going to the neighbor's house, feigning to borrow a cup of sugar for some fictional thing she was making. She'd do just about anything to get inside the Stephens' house, trying to figure out what was going on. Everyone saw her invasiveness and inappropriate behavior; everyone, that is, except Gladys herself. During the run of the series, there were two actresses who portrayed her. Both did a wonderful job in personifying the term busy-body.

While Gladys Kravitz was a fictional character, I'm sure she was based on a real person. I've known some in my own life. Growing up, we had a neighbor who was part of the neighborhood block watch (this was before there was such a thing). She knew the comings and goings of almost all the 40 houses in our small neighborhood. I know a few of the neighbors tried to avoid running into her because she would ask detailed questions, which they felt were none of her business. I don't think she meant anything mean, but she also didn't keep things to herself.

Another scenario that comes to mind is when I was transferred from a parish in Texas back to Pennsylvania to be vocation director. I remember announcing my transfer at the Saturday evening Mass. By the time I walked from the church back to the office, I had three voice mails from people who attended other churches saying they heard that I was being transferred. As they say, news travels fast.

The Good News we hear at Mass should travel at least that fast as well. We should, by virtue of the grace we received at Baptism and the strength we receive in the Eucharist, be able to spread hope and joy by the words we share with others. So, as the nights continue to grow longer and the days cooler, let's make sure we are not acting like busy-bodies, but we are presenting ourselves as people who bring light and blessings to others.

Peace and Blessings,
Fr. Mike

Our Good Shepherd Knights of Columbus have the privilege of hosting the Silver Rose during its pilgrimage to the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City, Mexico.

The Silver Rose represents the bouquet of roses that St. Juan Diego gathered into his cloak to present to the Bishop of Mexico City on December 12, 1531. Pope Saint John Paul II beatified St. Juan Diego in 1990 and canonized him in 2002.

The Silver Rose begins in Canada, travels throughout the United States, and ends in Mexico City, visiting many parishes along the way.

All are invited to join the Knights for their Silver Rose Prayer Service after the 4:00pm Mass on Sunday, November 23, before the Silver Rose moves to another parish.

This prayer service is to honor Our Lady of Guadalupe and express the Knights' international unity and dedication to the sanctity of human life.

Waiting WELL

ADVENT with FR. MIKE SCHMITZ

Advent can often feel like a countdown to Christmas and a hustle of preparation for the holidays, when in fact the liturgical season is all about waiting—not for a short-lived celebration, but for a person.

One way our parish is seeking to prepare well for Christ's Nativity is with Waiting Well, a special program from Ascension with Fr. Mike Schmitz, which features daily reflections, prayer, and opportunities for community.

This Advent, we can learn to wait well together as a parish. Sign up for Waiting Well to reflect, pray, and share in small groups with other parishioners in the Upper Room each Tuesday of Advent (begins Dec 2). Each session will begin with a short reflection from a GSCC staff member before breaking into small group for discussion. Each participant will receive a Waiting Well prayer journal, written by Fr. Mike Schmitz, filled with beautiful art and meaningful meditations to guide your Advent journey.

Spots are limited so sign up today!

Sign up by November 24th to reserve your spot!
