ANOINTING OF THE SICK

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (#1514-1515) teaches that this sacrament is not only for those at the point of death, but for anyone seriously ill or facing serious surgery. In fact, it is preferred that parishioners entering the hospital for surgery should ask the priest for this sacrament before being admitted. Parishioners should never wait until the last minute to call. We encourage parishioners facing surgery to let the parish priest know of their condition before entering the hospital so that they can be anointed before admission.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

OUR HELP IS FROM THE LORD, WHO MADE HEAVEN AND EARTH.

Shepherd's Corner

I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me

Our first reading today comes from the book of Exodus (17:8-13). This passage talks about a war between the Israelites and Amalek and his army. Now if one was going to wager on who would win, Amalek would be the favorite. He had a stronger army, more infantry men and was more advanced in military tactics than the Israelites. Yet, God says to his people, "Don't worry. I'm taking care of you. Trust in me." So, Moses prayed and lifted his hands in prayer to God. When he prayed, the Israelites would do well in the battle. However, if Moses' hands became tired and sagged, Amalek's army would do better in the battle. So, the people had Moses sit on a rock while two other Israelites supported Moses' arms in prayer. This gave Israel the advantage in the battle, and they eventually won. In those short five verses, I see two important lessons for us.

The first is how Moses is being consistent (and persistent) in his prayer. Even though he, at times, sees the other side winning, he doesn't give up. He remains faithful, trusting in God. I also noticed that God didn't simply make the battle go away, but he helped the Israelites fight against the enemy to win.

The other thing I see in this is the sense of community. Even though Moses had an intimate friendship with God, he still needed the help of others to support his prayer. How often do we take the support of our parish family for granted? I can't tell you how many times visitors will remark to me on what they see here at Good Shepherd: the number of people attending Mass, the music in our liturgy, and the friendliness of our people. All these things work together to build up our faith. We need one another because, as most of us know, life isn't always easy. While people may not literally be holding our arms up in prayer, we support one another by our participation in our Liturgies.

With that said, if you want to get involved in our parish but don't feel you have much time to spare, consider being an usher or a greeter. You're coming to Mass anyway; why not hold the door open and welcome others into God's house? Simply visit one of our staff members at the Welcome Desk in the Narthex after Mass or call our parish office and we can connect you with the right person. Or you can see page 12 of this bulletin on how to get involved in these and other ministries. Christianity shouldn't simply be a "God and me" event, it should be a "God and us" event. We are created in the image of the Trinity; we are created to be in community with one another.

Peace and Blessings,
Fr. Mike

P.S. Saturday, October 25, is our parish's annual Oktoberfest celebration, with a Trunk or Treat for the kids. These opportunities are a great way to build up our sense of community, so please come after the 5:00pm Mass and join us - grab a brat and get to know your fellow parishioners. I'll see you there!

A PLAN OF LIFE IN MARRIAGE

Discover how to develop a personal, marriage and family prayer routine according to your current season of life.

Saturday, November 1

6:30pm | Upper Room

Marriage on Tap offers spouses time away with one another to reflect on their vocation, learn practical tools for strengthening their marriage, and build community with other couples seeking to do the same. Join us for appetizers, beer and wine, speakers, and activities every first Saturday of the month. Engaged couples are invited and encouraged to attend!

This month we will be joined by Megan Philip who will speak to us about a Plan of Life in Marriage. Megan has a Master of Theological Studies from the Pontifical St. John Paul II Institute and specializes in the theology of marriage and family. She will lead us in discovering how to develop a personal, marriage and family prayer routine according to your season of life.

Visit gsc.net/marriageontap to register. Childcare is available for children 4-13 years old.

OCTOBER 22-23

Join thousands of Catholics across the country praying for the protection of human life from conception to natural death.

Each day of the novena features a different prayer intention, a short reflection, ideas for building a culture of life, and more.

DAY 1

INTERCESSION

May every person's life be protected and cared for from conception to natural death.

PRAYERS

Our Father, 3 Hail Marys, Glory Be

REFLECTION

God has loved you from all eternity and longs for a close relationship with you. In Scripture, He says, "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you" (Jer. 1:5). God has made you in His image and likeness, allowing you to share in and reflect His own glory. You were chosen by God, created out of love and for love. Your life is sacred, unique, irreplaceable, and good. And this reality is true for every human person. Each time we encounter another, we are standing on holy ground.

Human life is sacred at every moment and in every circumstance. The vulnerability of new life, the frailties of old age, and the challenges we face in between never diminish our God-given dignity. The life each of us has been given is always worth living. It is a gift that we are called to cherish and protect because God has willed us to exist through His love. And the same is true for the lives of others. Understanding our own goodness and dignity helps us see the sacredness of every human person. In response, we are called to treat each person accordingly—to welcome, care for, protect, and defend the gift of every person's life from its very beginning to its natural end.

ACTS OF REPARATION (choose one)

- Fast from one meal today.
- Pray the Rosary (or a decade) for today's intention (usccb.org/how-to-pray-the-rosary).
- Offer some other sacrifice, prayer, or act of penance that you feel called to do for today's intention.

ONE STEP FURTHER

In 1995, Pope St. John Paul II wrote Evangelium vitae (The Gospel of Life). This prophetic encyclical reaffirmed the value and inviolability of human life and urged all people to respect, protect, love, and serve every human life. Art & Environment Fresh Flowers

Would you like to commemorate special days in the year? Donations for flowers on our altars or at the Blessed Mother will be to honor or memorialize the special people and events in our lives. Flowers can fittingly mark the anniversary of a birth, baptism, confirmation, marriage, or death, as well as expressions of thanksgiving during Easter, Mother's or Father's Day, and Christmas. Arrangements will be of seasonal flowers only, no exotics, and are ordered by the Art & Environment committee only.

Donations of any amount are accepted. Outside of the seasons of Easter and Christmas no more than 3 arrangements can be on the church altar, two placed near the candles and one in front of the Ambo. The parish bulletin will no longer have acknowledgements of these donations monthly.

There will be no floral arrangements in the church during the season of Lent. The donations made during Lent are for the Easter season flowers and plants.

Thank you for supporting this effort at Good Shepherd!

At Good Shepherd, we root the sacraments in the ongoing life of faith: worshipping together, pursuing holiness, and serving as one parish community. Godparents and sponsors joyfully bear witness to the Catholic faith, standing with the Church to affirm their own commitment to Christ and to support the spiritual journey of the one they sponsor. To ensure that our godparents are witnesses to our faith, we ask that all godparents be active parishioners: registered for at least six months, attending Mass regularly, and engaged in parish life by tithing, volunteering, or participating in a parish group.

Parishioners who live these commitments may request a letter of good standing as a sign of our parish's trust and support in their role. These same expectations also apply to those requesting a tuition discount for Catholic school. Please note that if your request is needed to be a godparent or sponsor, if married, you must be in a canonical marriage.

Thank you for committing to your faith in a way that inspires others and strengthens our parish community.
