ANOINTING OF THE SICK

The Catechism of the Catholic Church (#1514-1515) teaches that this sacrament is not only for those at the point of death, but for anyone seriously ill or facing serious surgery. In fact, it is preferred that parishioners entering the hospital for surgery should ask the priest for this sacrament before being admitted. Parishioners should never wait until the last minute to call. We encourage parishioners facing surgery to let the parish priest know of their condition before entering the hospital so that they can be anointed before admission.

SUNDAY'S READINGS

Shepherd's Corner

I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me

When I was in 4th or 5th grade, I begged my parents to let me play the saxophone. They said if I was going to play any musical instrument, it had to be something that made music without being in a band. So, they signed me up for accordion lessons. I remember having to practice for a ½ hour each day, but after about a year, the honeymoon phase of learning an instrument wore off. I didn't want to practice daily. Instead, I wanted to be outside hanging out with my friends.

One day, I decided to practice as soon as I got home from school so that this "chore" would be over. After supper, a group of friends came over. As I was going out to play with them, my father stopped me and told me I had to practice the accordion before I could go outside. I told him I already practiced when I came home from school, but he said he didn't hear me practice. So, I had to stay inside and practice another ½ hour that day. I was not happy. I remember throwing a tantrum and trying to express to my father how unfair it was that just because he didn't hear me practice doesn't mean I didn't do it. I know I must have whined saying, "this is unfair," while using that pathetic voice that parents have heard since the beginning of time. I wouldn't be surprised if somewhere in that whining, I would have also uttered how unfair I thought he was.

I did that with my father, and I know I have done (and maybe still do) that with God when life doesn't seem fair or I don't seem to get my way. I have my tantrums and whine a lot. That's what we hear in the first reading from the book of Numbers (21:4-5): "With their patience worn out by the journey, the people complained against God and Moses." I think the difference between the people complaining in the desert and the complaining done in some of the Psalms or in the book of Job (or the complaining I did with my dad) is that through sin and selfishness the people in the desert lost their relationship with God. They were serving him out of fear, not love.

God knows my heart. So, if I pretend to be all peaceful and calm when things aren't going my way, yet on the inside I'm filled with anger, that's not an honest relationship. Whether we are talking about faith life, marriage or friendships, I think we all want honesty in the relationships we're in. I know I do and I'm sure God wants honesty as well. When Jesus taught us to pray The Lord's Prayer, he told us to call God "Father." We are called to be in relationship with Him as a child is to a parent, not a fearful relationship like slave to Master. May our relationship with God continue to grow in love as we remember He allowed His Son to die so we can live with Him forever.

Oh yeah, and as for the accordion, I certainly wasn't a virtuoso. And sadly, I played like I sing (off key and with no rhythm). But that my dad wanted to listen to me showed me how much he, in fact, loved me!

Peace and Blessings,
Fr. Mike

The mission of Smart Families is to empower families to build communities that engage with technology in a healthy, intentional way that is respectful of our innate human dignity. Holy Trinity is proud to be a Smart Families School and this parent workshop is open to all adults of our parish (no kids, please!).

We prioritize family.
We delay smartphones.

SEP 21 BLESSING OF CATECHISTS

Sunday, September 21

11:00am Mass | Church

In 1935, the Vatican published "On the Better Care and Promotion of Catechetical Education," a document that asks every country to acknowledge the importance of the Church's teaching ministry and to honor those who serve their community as catechists. In the United States, the Bishops have designated the third Sunday in September as Catechetical Sunday.

Catechesis is a distinct and special ministry in the Church, which is why we will honor and bless our catechists at the 11:00am Mass on Sunday, September 21.

ANNUAL DIOCESAN APPEAL

CATHOLIC
stewardship
IN ACTION

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With the election of our new Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, we are reminded that the Catholic Church is both profoundly universal and deeply local. Just as we rejoice in a new pope, we also celebrate each new baptism—like the 4,757 we welcomed in 2025 here in North Texas—as a sign of the growing life of the One Church. Across borders, languages, and generations, we are united in the Communion of the Catholic Church.

Here in the Diocese of Fort Worth, that unity is lived out in 92 parishes across 28 counties. Each year, I invite every Catholic household to support this local Church through the Annual Diocesan Appeal, our shared response of thanksgiving and solidarity.

The Appeal supports the ongoing growth and mission of our Diocese. It helps form new deacons to serve parishes like yours and provides care for our retired priests. It brings the Gospel to college campuses and rural towns and offers support to Catholic schools, family ministries, and parishes with limited resources. As your parish grows, so do the needs of our diocesan family.

Your support sustains ministries that serve every Catholic—now and for future generations. The Appeal is an opportunity to reflect on what God has done in our lives and to respond with love and trust in His providence.

Why do faithful Catholics give to the Annual Diocesan Appeal?

- I want to help others who are not as fortunate as I am. I have been given much in my life.
- It's a great way to impact multiple ministries that I would not be able to by myself.
- It's important for us as Catholics to contribute to the corporal works of mercy.
- Each ministry served by the Appeal is vital to the spread of the Gospel in the Diocese.
- It's my answer to the call to step out in faith and trust in God's providence.

Catholic Stewardship is alive and active in our Diocese. Each time I celebrate Confirmation, I see the generosity and hospitality of our parish communities. We live our faith not in isolation, but as members of one Body in Christ. As St. Paul writes, "As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ." (1 Cor 12:12)

Whether it's a parish food pantry feeding the hungry, volunteers bringing the sacraments into prisons, or new catechumens preparing for the Easter Vigil, the Church is present where it is needed most. A gift to the Appeal ensures that the Gospel continues to be proclaimed, everywhere and to everyone.

I ask you to prayerfully consider your gift to the Appeal. Every contribution, large or small, builds up our ONE CHURCH in North Texas.

May God bless you for your generosity and your faith.
