

The Church of Reconciliation

Ministries

Once you have decided to make Reconciliation your church home, the best way to get to know people is to get involved! Here is a list of the current ministries that might be of interest. Though we tried to put them into categories, many of them fit into more than one. If you would like information on any of them, just contact the church office at 210-655-2731 and we will “hook you up” with the team leads.
