We are joining with other Methodist Churches around the world who are leaving a candle unlit in solidarity with our Christian colleagues in Bethlehem. Leaving an unlit candle next to the candle of peace, is a way to remember our sisters and brothers in Christ and all those in Israel and Palestine who mourn this Christmas. A picture of our unlit candle will be sent to the Methodist Liaison Office in Jerusalem on Christmas Day that they will share with local Christian communities in the Holy Land.

SILENT NIGHT SERVICE

Dec 19, 6-7pm, Chapel. We pause in this season to remember and reflect with those who are carrying hearts heavy with grief, loss, or unmet expectations. Songs, prayers, and scripture. Childcare available. Live stream available at carlislepaumc.org/worshipexperience.

CHRISTMAS EVE MORNING SCHEDULE

CUMC's Sunday morning schedule will be different for Sunday, December 24. We will have 2 services in the morning: 9:30am Contemporary and 11:00am Traditional with Communion. Childcare available at both services. Both services available via live stream at carlislepaumc.org/worshipexperience.

CHRISTMAS EVE EVENING SERVICES

3 candlelight services on Dec. 24: 4:30pm Family Service; 7:00pm Contemporary Service; and 9:00pm Traditional Service. Childcare provided at 4:30 and 7:00pm. All services available via live stream. Invite a friend and join us for a service that will give you a new perspective on Christmas as we look at the meaning of Christmas through "The Best Christmas Pageant Ever."
