TODAY'S GUEST SPEAKER: ANGELINA ROMANO, School Social Worker

Angelina is a licensed clinical social worker and K-12 School Social Worker for South Middleton School District. She supports students and families with mental health, attendance, housing, foster care, and basic needs. Through her work in schools, outpatient therapy, and professional organizations, Angelina champions strong partnerships between schools, families, and community organizations like CUMC to ensure local children and families receive the care and support they need.

SERVE Pop-Up: Kids

TODAY, after each worship service help assemble Kindness Bears and create a project for our Little Lights, Headstart, and CUMC Kids. Also: Stop by our Did You Know Tables in the Gathering to learn about our SERVE Kids' ministries.

We have the candy...now we need the trunks!

Wow, CUMC! You've come through with the candy, and we are so grateful for your generosity! Now, we need you help making Trunk or Treat unforgettable afternoon for our community. We're looking for about 10 more decorated trunks to help make the fun happen on Saturday, Oct 31, 3-5pm, at CUMC. Want to volunteer? Help with activities, refreshments, greeting guests, or behind the scenes.
