

SOJOURNERS

December 21, 2025

Selected Thoughts on Christmas

William Gurnall:

"He who was eternally in the bosom of His Father, chose to be born in a foul stable. He who hung the stars in the sky, chose to be nailed and die upon the accursed tree. This is love immeasurable, love incomprehensible!"

Isaac Ambrose:

"Consider Christ's condescension: He who made man, was made man. He who is the eternal Word, was pleased to be an infant who could not speak. Oh, the depth of this mystery!"

Selected Thoughts on Christmas

John Flavel:

"The Eternal God was pleased to wrap Himself in flesh, in order to come down from the height of His glory, to the depths of our misery. Here is a love that surpasses comprehension. Here is the greatest wonder that heaven and earth have ever seen!"

John Bunyan:

"He came not as a fierce lion to devour, but as a spotless lamb to be sacrificed, that we might be reconciled to God. Marvel at this: the King of glory chose a cradle over a crown, and a cross over a throne."

Selected Thoughts on Christmas

John Cotton:

"The Son of God left His glorious throne, to become a servant; in order that we who were rebels, might become children of God. The incarnation is the key to all our hope and joy."

Jeremiah Burroughs:

"What greater wonder is there, than that the infinite God should clothe Himself in finite flesh in order to save wretched and rebellious men? This is the bottomless ocean of mercy."

Christopher Love:

"Behold the marvelous mystery! He who was rich, became poor; that we who were poor, might become rich. The Son of God entered the misery of the world-that we might enter the glory of Heaven."

Selected Thoughts on Christmas

Charles Spurgeon:

"The infinite became an infant.

Incomprehensibility was made man.

Eternal, and yet born of a woman.

Almighty, and yet hanging on a woman's bosom.

Supporting the universe, and yet needing to be carried in a mother's arms.

Oh the wonder of wonders.

Oh the mystery of mercy.

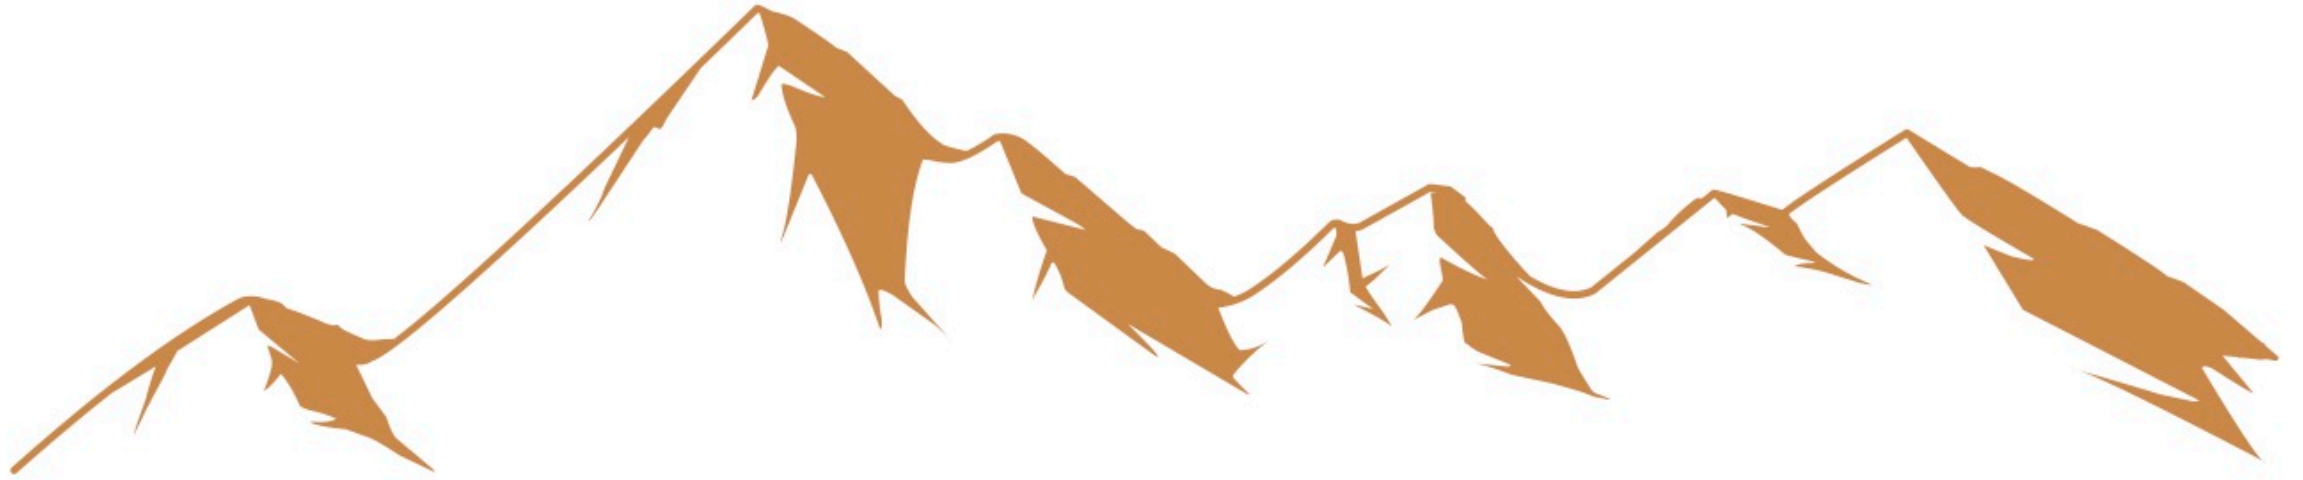

Oh the profoundness of His matchless grace."

"May you have the power to understand, as all God's people should, how wide, how long, how high, and how deep His love is. May you experience the love of Christ, though it is too great to understand fully." Ephesians 3:18-19

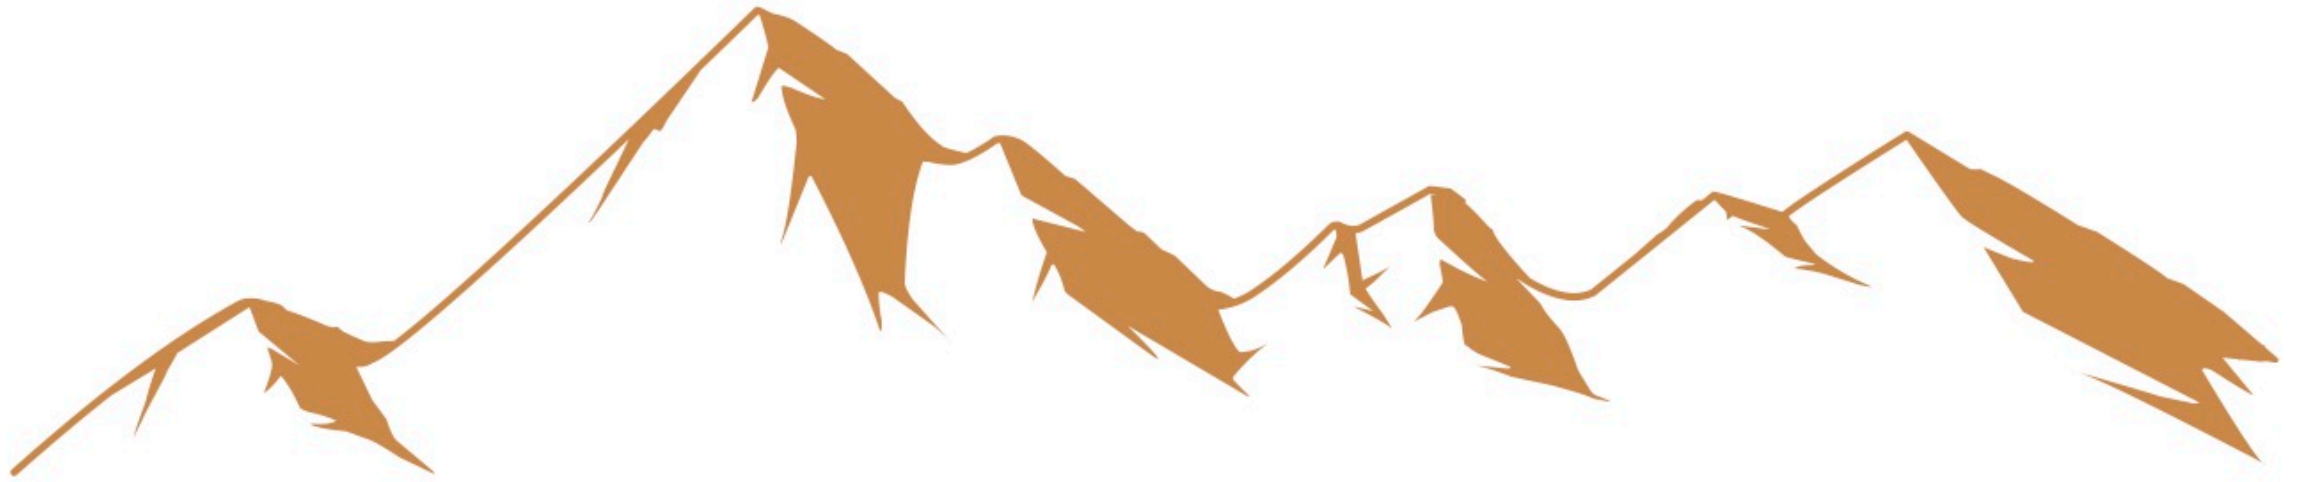

Prayer & Praise

SERMON on the MOUNT

SERMON on the MOUNT

Hypocrisy and the Heart
Matthew 6:1-4

SERMON on the MOUNT

Beware the Hypocrite's Prayer
Matthew 6:5–8

Beware the Hypocrite's Prayer

Matthew 6:5–8

1. Beware of Theatrical Prayer – vv. 5-6

Beware the Hypocrite's Prayer

Matthew 6:5–8

1. Beware of Theatrical Prayer – vv. 5-6
2. Beware of Mechanical Prayer – vv. 7–8

SERMON on the MOUNT