

Acts 28:30-31

The Kingdom of God

Speaker: BJ Chursinoff

But he said to them, "It is necessary for me to proclaim the good news about the kingdom of God to the other towns also, because I was sent for this purpose." – Luke 4:43

Afterward he was traveling from one town and village to another, preaching and telling the good news of the kingdom of God. – Luke 8:1a

When the crowds found out, they followed him. He welcomed them, spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and healed those who needed healing. – Luke 9:11

"The Law and the Prophets were until John; since then, the good news of the kingdom of God has been proclaimed..." – Luke 16:16

He said, therefore, "What is the kingdom of God like, and what can I compare it to?" – Luke 13:18

When he was asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, he answered them, "The kingdom of God is not coming with something observable; no one will say, 'See here!' or 'There!' For you see, the kingdom of God is in your midst." – Luke 17:20-21

As they were listening to this, he went on to tell a parable because he was near Jerusalem, and they thought the kingdom of God was going to appear right away. – Luke 19:11

"In the same way, when you see these things happening, recognize that the kingdom of God is near." – Luke 21:31

Then looking up at his disciples, he said: Blessed are you who are poor, because the kingdom of God is yours. – Luke 6:20

"I tell you, among those born of women no one is greater than John, but the least in the kingdom of God is greater than he." – Luke 7:28

Seeing that he became sad, Jesus said, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God! For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God." – Luke 18:24-25

So he said to them, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left a house, wife or brothers or sisters, parents or children because of the kingdom of God, who will not receive many times more at this time, and eternal life in the age to come." – Luke 18:29-30

"There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth in that place, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, but yourselves thrown out. They will come from east and west, from north and south, to share the banquet in the kingdom of God." – Luke 13:28-29

Then he sent them to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. – Luke 9:2

But he told him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and spread the news of the kingdom of God." ... But Jesus said to him, "No one who puts his hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God." – Luke 9:60 & 62

Jesus, however, invited them: "Let the little children come to me, and don't stop them, because the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it." – Luke 18:16-17

After he had suffered, he also presented himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. – Acts 1:3

But when they believed Philip, as he proclaimed the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were baptized. – Acts 8:12

"It is necessary to go through many hardships to enter the kingdom of God." – Acts 14:22b

Paul entered the synagogue and spoke boldly over a period of three months, arguing and persuading them about the kingdom of God. – Acts 19:8
