

CHRIST CHURCH

Week of January 16, 2023

A compassionate Christian community

CONGREGATIONAL GATHERING

God has a plan for our church! Let's gather together on Sunday, January 29th, from 3-5pm to discuss how Christ Church can follow God's plan for us and impact our community in the coming years.

Here are some questions to reflect on in preparation:

How have you seen God at work in Christ Church?

What are Christ Church's current strengths?

What do you believe are the three most important things God wants us to focus on in the next 3-5 years?

What future opportunities do you see for Christ Church?

Please be in prayer about these things & come prepared to share what God has put on your heart.

NEWCOMERS EVENT

Are you feeling at home at Christ Church? We'd like to help you find that family connection. On the first Sunday of every month we will hold a brief gathering after one of the morning services (alternating each month) to help connect with folks who are new to Christ Church. The next event will take place on Feb. 5 following the 10:30am service, in the Connection Cafe. Childcare will be available.

C GROUPS

Would you like a place draw closer to God and others here at Christ Church? Various types of C groups are available to join, such as prayer groups, Bible study groups, discussion groups and community groups. To sign up go to our website. cccov.org.

MEN'S RETREAT

Be strong. Stand firm in the faith. Be on your guard. The Pilgrim Pines Men's Retreat is designed to ignite your passion to live for Christ. You will be challenged through worship & teaching to live a life of integrity. The Men's Retreat always provides a great time of outdoor recreation on beautiful Swanzey Lake. Bring a friend along. For more information, go to www.pilgrimpines.org/mens-retreat. If interested, please contact Jeff Allain (jeff@neweconomy.com) who is organizing a group from our church. The retreat will take place March 24-26.
