

Sermon Notes:

JESUS IS...
 JESUS IS THE TRUE VINE
 JOHN 15:1-10

1. Remain Connected to the Source of Life

2. God is the Gardener

3. Fruit

"The fruit is not the achievement of the disciple but the work of Christ in him." -- Dietrich Bonhoeffer

- Love (agape): Unconditional, sacrificial love.
- Joy (chara): Deep, abiding gladness, not just fleeting happiness.
- Peace Inner tranquility and wholeness, even amidst turmoil
- Patience (makrothymia): Long-suffering and endurance.
- Kindness (chrestotes): Gentle, benevolent actions.
- Goodness (agathosune): Moral and spiritual excellence, doing what is right.
- Faithfulness (pistis): Loyalty, reliability, and keeping promises.
- Gentleness (praotes): Humility and strength under control.
- Self-Control (enkrateia): Discipline over one's desires and actions

Discussion Questions:

1. What am I currently connected to that I'm expecting to give me life—and how is it actually shaping me?
2. Where might God be pruning me right now—and am I fighting it or trusting His heart?
3. Am I trying to produce 'more,' or am I allowing God to produce 'better' fruit in me?
4. How does my life actually taste to the people closest to me right now?
5. What would change this week if I truly believed that apart from Jesus I can do nothing—but connected to Him, fruit is inevitable?
