

Where are you?

God's ongoing question to humanity...

Matthew Zamudio, Pastor, Windsor Park Baptist Church, Desoto Tx. July 20, 2025. All scriptures are printed verbatim with translations noted.

CONTEXT

- ♦ This book was oral tradition passed down from generation to generation.
- ♦ Eventually this was written down and recorded by Moses.
- ♦ The first chapter is a Hebrew poem.

1. The Deception

Genesis 3:1—Now the serpent was more crafty than any other beast of the field that the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God actually say, ‘You shall not eat of any tree in the garden?’”

2. The Distortion

Genesis 3:2-3— And the woman said to the serpent, “We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden, 3 but God said, ‘You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the midst of the garden, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.’”

3. The Doubt

Genesis 3:4-5— But the serpent said to the woman, “You will not surely die. For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

4. The Damage

Genesis 3:6-7— So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate, and she also gave some to her husband who was with her, and he ate. Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked. And they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves loincloths.

5. The Discussion Discourse

Genesis 3:8-13— And they heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man and said to him, “Where are you?” And he said, “I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked, and I hid myself.” He said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten of the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?” The man said, “The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit of the tree, and I ate.” Then the Lord God said to the woman, “What is this that you have done?” The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”
