

SPOILER ALERT: you may want to read these after hearing the sermon.

1. Which of the 4 gospels tends to be your favorite and why: Matthew, Mark, Luke, or John?
2. Read Luke 1:1-4. How might you answer, if a friend asked you this question: why does the Bible have 4 different Gospel accounts, and why do they each have different information?
3. What are some unique things about Luke's Gospel, and about Luke as a person? How might these be important to our understanding of the Good News about Jesus?
(See Colossians 4:14; 2 Timothy 4:9-11; Philemon 24)
4. What do you think verse 1 means by "the things that have been fulfilled among us"? (See Luke 24:44-47)
5. What kinds of things can give us assurance that Luke's account of the Gospel is reliable and trustworthy?
(See Luke 1:2-3; 2 Peter 1:20-21)
6. What do you think verse 4 tells us about Luke's purpose for writing his Gospel?
7. What is one of your favorite Bible study resources and why? How does it help you to better understand the Bible?
