

SPOILER ALERT: you may want to read these after hearing the sermon.

1. If you were at church Sunday, what was your favorite part of the Kids Christmas service and why?
2. What is one of the most thought-provoking things you've heard a child or young person say? How do you think hearing a child say it, may have impacted you differently than if an adult had said it?
3. Read Psalm 8. What do you think verse 2 might mean by "Through the praise of children and infants you have established a stronghold against your enemies, to silence the foe and the avenger"?
4. Would you agree that God often works His greatest power, in and through the weakest and most vulnerable? Explain. (See 1 Corinthians 1:27; 2 Corinthians 12:9-10)
5. Read Matthew 21:12-16. Why do you think the spiritual leaders were indignant? What do you think these adults could have learned from the praises of the children?
6. Would you agree that spiritual truth is often right in front of our eyes, if we would simply embrace a more childlike faith? Explain. (See Luke 10:21; Matthew 18:1-3)

Out of the Mouths of Babes

Psalm 8:2 on December 8, 2024

Pastor Jerry R.A. Johnson

Children can teach us that...

1) ... God often works _____,
in and through _____.

2) ...spiritual truth _____,
if we would simply _____.
