

Life Group Questions for the week of November 30th

1. What are some of your favorite ways to mark the beginning of the Christmas or Advent season?
2. How familiar are you with the season of Advent? How might the season help prepare your heart for the celebration of Christ's birth?
3. Read James 5:7-11. Do you tend to associate patience with tolerating something negative or looking forward to something positive? How do James' examples in this passage help to encourage patience in you?
4. To what degree do you think Christians today are looking forward to Christ's return with eager anticipation? What about you?
5. Why do you think James reminded the church family not to "grumble against one another"?
6. How might the promise of restoration when Christ returns encourage believers toward perseverance and steadfast endurance in the face of suffering, brokenness, and injustice?
