

Life Group Questions for the week of January 25th

1. Who is the most famous person you've met or seen in public?
2. Read Luke 9:18-19. How would you describe Jesus' public persona in 2026? What are some contemporary examples of a perspective on Jesus that is good, but not best?
3. There are many answers to the question "Who is Jesus," and not all of them are good. How do you personally discern what is worth listening to, reading, or watching in order to grow in discipleship?
4. Read Luke 9:20-22. Are you surprised that Jesus told his disciples not to repeat Peter's better answer?
5. Are there things about the Bible, theology, or the gospel that you feel you know the right answer, but don't have a good understanding? We can't know everything, but how can we move from good, to better, to best?
6. Read Luke 9:23-27. When has the decision to follow Jesus as his disciple felt like a crossroads for you? How did you navigate this crucial decision?
