

Questions

1. Is there a struggle in your life that for which it seems especially hard to ask for help?
2. How important is it to you, on a daily basis, to seek out and obey God's will?
3. Can you think of a recent time when you struggled to know what to pray?
4. In what way do you see the personal and loving care of the Holy Spirit as He intercedes for you in prayer?
5. The Holy Spirit takes the burdens for which you are praying and brings them before the King in words that reflect your heart AND are in agreement with the King's will. How does that encourage you to pray?
6. What are some practical ways that you can be seeking to pray in accord with God's will?
7. How is your prayer life? What aspect(s) of your prayer life need help? Will you ask others to pray for you and help you be accountable?

After each service, if you need prayer, someone will be available up front to pray with or for you.

www.gbcclorton.com/sermons

THE BIBLE'S SUMMIT

— A Sermon Series on Romans 8 —

The Spirit Intercedes

Romans 8:26-27

Doug Sachtleben, Lead Pastor

March 19, 2023

Romans 8:26-27 reminds believers that we are weak and need help to pray effectively, and that the Holy Spirit is wise and intercedes for us in prayer.

1. We are weak and need help to pray effectively.

Two Applications:

- 1. Desire God's will
- 2. The Holy Spirit is wise and intercedes for us in prayer.