

Welcome to Overflow

We are so glad you are here.

Hymn #123 - Abide with Me

Announcements:

We will not meet next week because of Thanksgiving.

We will meet again on Nov. 28 for Perspectives.

Laurin Maddux will be our speaker. She will be talking to us about distinctly Christian ways to address fear based decision making and burn out.

Please review chapters 2-8 in preparation for your small group time, using the questions in your binder to guide you.

John 7 & 8

1. Jesus is the Light of the World who shines in the darkness; His light has not been and will not be overcome because He is God.
2. He gives his followers this light, living water that is the Holy Spirit, and eternal life.
3. He calls his followers into a deeper, more personal relationship with him through his Word. And to those who abide in His Word, He promises freedom.

John 7 & 8

The chapters begin and end with opposition.
In fact, the structure of these two chapters is a back and forth of opposition and Jesus's teaching.

This opposition has been building since chapter 5 and will continue to get worse until Jesus' crucifixion.

The Festival of Booths

“I am the Light of the world.
Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness but will have the light of life.” John 8:12

Though I sit in darkness,
the Lord will be my light.
Micah 7:8

The Lord is my light and my salvation - whom shall I fear?
Psalm 27:1

I will also make you a light for the Gentiles, that you may bring my salvation to the ends of the earth.
Isaiah 49:6

There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord will give them light.
Revelation 22:5

Division among the people

He is a good man. vs.
No, he is leading people astray.

Can it be the authorities really know this is the Christ? vs.
But we know where he comes from and when the Christ appears no one will know that.

This is the Christ. vs.
Is the Christ to come from Galilee?

come and see.

believe in Jesus.

believe and you will receive.

to believers: abide in the Word and be set free.

Jesus is the Light of the world.

He came to shine in the darkness.

He came to cast out the darkness.

He came to give the light of life.

He came so we can know the truth & be set free.
