

Welcome to Overflow

We are so glad you are here today.

Hymn 193 - Man of Sorrows! What a Name

Announcements:

No Overflow next week. We will meet again on Tuesday, April 2 to discuss John 19.

You are all invited to Holy Week services here at 2PC:

- * Sunday, March 24 Palm Sunday worship at 8:15 and 11:00 am
- * Sunday, March 24 Handel's Messiah from 6:00-8:00 pm
- * Holy Week noon services with lunch at 11:00 or 12:30 (Mon-Thurs)
- * Maundy Thursday Evening Communion Service 6:30 pm
- * Good Friday noon service (no lunch served this day)
- * Egg Hunt Saturday, March 30 at 10 on the Turf Field for children up to second grade

- * EASTER SUNDAY SERVICES: 6:30 am sunrise service at the Botanic Gardens or 8:00, 9:30 and 11:00 in the sanctuary. No Sunday School on Easter. Nursery for kids ages 5 and under for the 8:00 and 9:30 services only.

Announcements:

It's time to talk about Vacation Bible School!

We are looking for volunteers. Please pray about where you can serve this year.

Registration is now open online. Sign up your children and ask your friends to register as well.

John 18 - The Betrayal of Jesus

Author's Aim: To show the reader the overwhelming darkness that Jesus Christ endured for us, because of His great love for us, so we can have eternal life through faith in Him.

Three betrayals:

- 1. By Judas in the garden [vs. 1-11]
- 2. By Peter at the house of Annas [vs. 12-27]
- 3. By the Jews at Pilate's headquarters [vs. 28-40]

John 18

Unifying theme: In every scene of this chapter, we will see that Jesus Christ, knowing what would happen to Him, willingly surrenders to His captors, humbly submits to unjust Jewish and Roman trials, and ultimately succeeds in His purpose - to bear witness to THE TRUTH.

Jesus in the garden

Jesus is betrayed by Judas.

He does not fight, nor does He flee.

Jesus has all authority.

Jesus before the high priest

Jesus is betrayed by Peter.

Jesus has all authority.

Jesus endures an unfair 'trial.'

Jesus before Pilate

Jesus is betrayed by the Jewish people.

“What is truth?”

Jesus' purpose.

Hope in the midst of darkness

Revelation 22:5 “There will be no more night.”

