The Queen's Six

Music at Incarnation

Welcome to this season of music at Church of the Incarnation.

Rooted in the Church's rich musical tradition, our concert series extends the beauty of worship into the wider community through performances that inspire, enrich, and invite contemplation. Throughout the season, internationally acclaimed artists join our own resident ensembles in celebrating the sacred music of the Church across the centuries.

This season we are honored to welcome the Choir of Trinity College, Cambridge and The Queen's Six, two of the finest vocal ensembles in the world. Our professional choir, Incarnatus, presents Handel's Messiah on Palm Sunday, offering a profound musical meditation at the threshold of Holy Week.

Our free weekly Bach's Lunch series returns with Bach cantatas, distinguished guest organists, chamber music, and performances by faculty and artists from Southern Methodist University and other leading institutions, continuing a beloved tradition of sacred music in the heart of Dallas.

Whether you join us for worship, a midday recital, or an evening concert, we look forward to welcoming you throughout the season and to sharing with you the beauty, joy, and transcendence of great sacred music.
