3966 MCKINNEY AVENUE • DALLAS, TX • 75204

Job Title: Assistant Director of Youth Ministry

Reports to: Director of Family Ministries

Category: Full Time + Benefits

Location: Dallas, Texas

CHURCH MISSION

Church of the Incarnation is a resource-sized parish located just north of downtown Dallas, Texas. With 5,000 members from across the Dallas-Fort Worth area, Incarnation's central mission is to foster spiritual growth in Jesus Christ for people of all ages and backgrounds. Our core practices include worshipping the Holy Trinity in the great tradition of the Church, leading believers toward maturity in faith, serving the poor, and developing leaders for the renewal of God's Church locally and around the world.

POSITION SUMMARY

Under the direction of the Rector's vision and leadership, the Assistant Director of Youth Ministry will serve within the Department of Family Ministry and minister to youth from 6th – 12th grade, with a special focus on mentoring young women. The Assistant Director of Youth ministry will help lead a spiritually formative and fun programming for youth and assist the Director of Family ministry in equipping parents to be the chief shepherds of their children. The guiding principle of youth ministry at Incarnation will be that our youth are an integral part of the body of the church, and the church as such is the primary locus of their Christian formation and well-being.

In addition to serving within Incarnation's youth ministry, the Assistant Director for Youth Ministry will serve liturgically on Sundays as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS

The successful candidate will be:

- A committed disciple of Jesus Christ and a person of lively faith
- Passionate about the growth and care of God's people, particularly youth and families.
- Ready to contribute to and learn from a team of other clergy and lay leaders
- Able to faithfully and effectively teach the Bible to youth
- Able to provide evidence of fostering spiritual growth in God's Church
- Creative and forward-thinking in the design of family ministry
- Excited to work in a growth-oriented environment

Authority, specific tasks, and salary will be determined based upon the person's level of experience and expertise.
