Our God: The One Who Hears My Cry

Series: Summer in the Psalms: Praying Jesus' Prayer Book

Speaker: John Roberts

Text: Psalm 28

Introduction

Where do you turn when life gets out of hand?

Hebrews 1:10-12, Psalm 77:1-3, Romans 8:26-27, John 16:7

We have an "advocate"

What are some of the circumstances that bring us to God? Psalm 28, Psalm 3, Psalm 40, Jonah 2:1-2.

We turn to the one whose heart and hands are for us.

What does the process of trusting God in our anguish and hardship look like?

We are PERSISTENT in our groaning...

We REMEMBER in our groaning...

We WAIT in our groaning...

We WATCH in our groaning...

We WORSHIP in our waiting... and watching...

We rest in the hands of the one whose heart and hands are for us.

Local Mission-Love Inc: (Used to be called Serve Moses Lake)
Throughout the year, Love INC works with the community to identify real needs. Together, we choose a specific need and invite every partner church to help meet it. Each church collects donations during the drive, and when it ends, our team gathers everything together. The donated items are then distributed to neighbors who have reached out for help. No one church nor Love INC does it alone. Every drive is a picture of the Church serving as one body, with each congregation playing an important part.

Adrianna Simmons:

Adrianna continues her work in the Mekong River Region, Thailand. Her team is expanding the media presence in the region. They are training new people to share the gospel and start new churches. God is at work!

Matthew 11:28

1 Peter 1:6-7

Reflection:

1. What's bothering you lately? What's causing you worry and stress or fear and pain?
2. How are you bringing them persistently before the father?
3. Are you remembering God's faithfulness in the past?
4. Wait patiently for God to Act...
5. Watch so that when he acts you can see it... you don't want to miss it...
6. Worship while you wait and watch.
