

Let Heaven Fill Your Thoughts.

Our theme “Let Heaven Fill Your Thoughts” requires action from us as believers. We cannot move forward in our faith walk without “taking every thought captive to make it obedient to Christ” (1 Corinthians 10:5). Earlier in this chapter, we are reminded that the weapons we fight with are not of the world, but we have divine power to demolish strongholds. Through HIM, we demolish arguments and every proud obstacle to the knowledge of God! As Pierre Teilhard de Chardin said, “We are not human beings having a spiritual experience. We are spiritual beings having a human experience.”

Seeking a heavenly perspective, we will focus on Philippians 3:8 and Colossians 4:2. Our desire is for each of us to discover more deeply how to keep a heavenly perspective in every aspect and situation in our lives, to corral our thoughts in a God-honoring way, and “devote ourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful.” This season of life is not a time to become complacent, but to use the precious time we have here on earth for building God’s kingdom and positively impacting those around us. In the battle for our thoughts and actions to be in alignment with Scripture, we need to fix our eyes on Jesus, the Author and Perfector of our faith! Let’s meet the challenges in the victory Jesus accomplished for us on the cross. Let heaven fill our thoughts and bring glory to His Name!
