

Friendships of Women

Friends Who Betray

I. The Best _____ Friend

II. The Best _____ Friend

III. The Best _____ Friend

What can we learn from all this?

Friendships of Women

Friends Who Betray

1. Think of someone in your life who has betrayed you. Don't share details and please don't share names .... BUT discuss how you have handled the betrayal and how you think about that person. Can you apply anything from today's teaching to your situation. If so, what?
2. Now, think of someone you have betrayed (we all have) – someone you have backstabbed. It can be from your childhood or as recently as last week. Again, don't share details and please don't share names ... BUT discuss how they handled your betrayal of them.
3. Compare each of the above to Jesus and Judas.
4. We don't always know we have betrayed someone, nor do we always know if someone thinks we have betrayed them. In those situations, think of some passages of Scripture that might speak to this. The end of Psalm 139 comes to mind. Are there others?
5. And thinking about question 4, is there something you can do to make it right? Sometimes you can't. Look up Romans 12:18 and Matthew 5:24
6. How will you obey what God has shown you?