

Sermon Recap | Matthew 17:1–9

Have you ever been lost, checked a map, and suddenly everything clicked? That's what happened for Jesus' friends in Matthew 17:1-9. On the mountain, God's glory was revealed and they got a clearer picture of who Jesus really is—not just a teacher, but God Himself. Moments like this remind us that when we spend time in God's Word, the bigger picture comes into focus. Scripture shows us what God is like and helps us see what's next.

As you read this passage, ask God to reveal any changes or action steps He's inviting you to take, and trust that this moment of clarity can change everything.

RESPONSE

As you head into this week, there's still so much more to discover in God's Word. We want to challenge you to practice praying through Scripture at home—and consider inviting a family member or friend to take that journey with you. God gave us the Bible as a gift so we could know Him, and the more time you spend in it, the more clearly you'll see who God is and how His Word speaks into your life.
