Camp Vesper Point: Camp Vesper Point is a beautiful summer camp and retreat center located on 120+ acres beside the beautiful Lake Chickamauga near Soddy Daisy, TN. A Chattanooga tradition since 1954, Vesper Point became a summer home for campers and staff who love the outdoors and seek an authentic relationship with Christ. The cornerstone of each summer are counselors and staff who exemplify Christ and share their testimonies each evening during Vespers, while overlooking the lake. Activities include water skiing, swimming, bouldering, the Hoe Down, and all sorts of other adventures. These activities serve as stepping-stones for creating a Gospel centered community where campers and staff are drawn closer to Christ. Volunteer opportunities include: volunteer workdays, equipment donations, prayer, hosting counselors. We are also looking for church members to "adopt" a CVP staff member by committing to pray for them and to write them while they are at camp. Contact the church office if you are interested in this. If you are interested in hosting an event at camp or have a desire to spend time at camp, please contact:

Camp Director Forrest Walker at forrest@vesperpoint.org

If you are interested in hosting a counselor during summer off time, or in any of the other volunteer opportunities, contact:

CVP Office at 423-332-1849

Children and Youth Ministry

Dick Cain, Senior Assistant Pastor, dick@1stpresbyterian.com

Children's Ministries: Children's Ministry focuses on discipling our children ages infant through 5th grade. Our vision is to help kids See Jesus, Savor Jesus, and Share Jesus to the end that God would be glorified in Chattanooga and to the ends of the earth. Children's Ministry includes regular, ongoing ministries:

Sunday Morning:

- Nursery Ministry, Children's Church, Worship Bags Ministry - resources provided to help children participate in the 9 & 11 AM Worship Services, Sunday School, KidCheck Greeters, Bible Memory Work Ministry - for 2 years old through 5th grade, Sunday Recap - weekly guide to what kids learned in Sunday School

Midweek:

- Nursery Ministry, Midweek lesson and games for PreK-5th graders, Kids Choir

Special Events:

- Operation Christmas Child, Mission Vision (missions conference for children during the church's missions conference) and Vacation Bible School (VBS) which is an opportunity to reach our children and their families as well as unchurched children and their families, 1st Pres Playgroup (connection for moms and kids ages 0-5).

Emily Brelsford, Kids Ministry Director, emily@1stpresbyterian.com

For Nursery information contact:

Grace O'Dell, Nursery Administration Coordinator, grace@1stpresbyterian.com

Tracey Skillman, Christian Education Coordinator,

For Kids Choir information contact:

Christine Hassevoort, christineh0306@gmail.com

For Operation Christmas Child contact:

Tiffany Whaley, tiff.whaley@gmail.com

The Nursery:

- Open each Sunday from 8:45am-12:15pm
- Nursery care for infants –17 months
- Beginners and Explorers receive a lesson during the 9am worship hour along with hands on activities to reinforce the lesson
- Nursey kids ages 18 months – 3 years old receive a lesson during Sunday School, along with games, snacks.

Volunteer opportunities for each of the Kids Ministries listed above are available.

Youth Ministry (MS/HS): The Youth Ministry of First Presbyterian exists to gather our students in hopes that they would know, trust in, and treasure Christ, and to disciple our students in hopes that they will grow as faithful, fruitful, followers of Christ. This is primarily accomplished through small group discussion, large group teaching, events, retreats, mission opportunities, and one-on-one mentorship. By God's grace, and for His glory, we hope to be a welcoming, authentic community who worships God in gospel-centered fellowship, and loves others in gospel-centered service.

Volunteer opportunities: Sunday School teachers, weekly small group leaders, retreat & conference chaperones, event hosts, student & intern mentors, and prayer.

Brad Roberts, Director, brad@1stpresbyterian.com

Isabella Bridges, Assistant Director, isabella@1stpresbyterian.com

Cherie Brown, Administrative Assistant, cherie@1stpresbyterian.com

Church Care Ministries: Volunteer opportunities abound in our Church Care Ministries. Church members interested in volunteering in any of the ministries described below may contact the leader of that ministry or:

Dick Cain, Senior Assistant Pastor, dick@1stpresbyterian.com

Assimilation: Assimilation is the process by which a person visits the church, desires to join, completes the Inquirer's Class, meets with an Elder, is accepted into membership, and is then enfolded into the life of the church in a comprehensive way. During the process, inquirers are encouraged to use some simple assessment tools that help them identify their spiritual gifts and areas of ministry they are passionate about. They are encouraged to worship regularly, join a Sunday School class and/or a small group and get involved in a ministry. Church members who volunteer to help with Assimilation can assist with the Inquirer's Class, or come alongside new members as they get "plugged in."

Dick Cain, dick@1stpresbyterian.com

Congregational Care: Congregational Care is a large umbrella of opportunities to serve our members, and especially our senior adults at First Presbyterian. Our Honor Roll lists about 100 members who are unable to attend worship or other activities regularly. Volunteers keep in touch through phone calls, notes and visits. Annual deliveries of small cakes and poinsettias during holidays help to remind the recipients that they are remembered. A special focus on widows and widowers culminates in an annual luncheon highlighted by the choir and many helpers. Volunteers can also serve by participating in Monday morning prayer group and receiving and using the church prayer email.

Teresa North, northhh@comcast.net

Priscilla George, csps@epbfi.com

Bereavement Meals: As an extension of Care and Concern within the church, this committee was formed for the purpose of serving a meal for the family of a deceased church member following his/her funeral or memorial service. Several teams, headed by a leader and co-leader, rotate their opportunities for service. Generally, any volunteer will only be called upon to serve a meal at every 7th or 8th funeral.

Lynda Jackson (Bereavement meals), lyndatnjackson@gmail.com

For assistance in handling all the details of a funeral/memorial service, including coordination of visitation, service, and meal or reception afterwards, contact:

Peggy Jenkins (Bereavement Coordinator), peggy.jenkins50@gmail.com

Card-E-Ology: The Card-E-Ology ministry makes free cards in several categories for First Presbyterian members and friends to use to encourage others. We are dedicated to sending our God's Holy Word in every card we make. We create cards and also repurpose donated cards. Cards are made for the general population, for other ministries in the church (such as, Care and Concern, the Children's Ministry, and Prison Ministry), and for visiting missionaries. This is a volunteer ministry, and anyone who can sort, cut, fold, and/or glue and design is welcome to join us. We would love to have more workers, as we stay busy with the 3000+ cards we make each year. We meet most Fridays!

Sharon Rorex, srrorex@gmail.com

Card ministries: Individuals designated for the month take time to send notes and cards to Honor Roll / Honored Friends and Seniors who are celebrating a birthday. Volunteers also send notes to new parents, new members, those who have recently lost a loved one, family in the military, caregivers, and those who are marking the first year after the passing of a spouse, child or parent. To join one of these card ministries, contact

*Daily Hospital/Sick/Bereaved Prayer List: A daily email list of anyone in the hospital, prayer requests, newly bereaved, new additions, and military associated with First Pres. Contact the church office to get on the email list.
Office@1stpresbyterian.com

*E-prayer list: Receive up-to-the-minute prayer requests from church members, their families and friends, via email.
Gigi Gross, gggross@epbfi.com

Flower Ministry: The floral arrangements in the Sanctuary each Sunday during worship services are generously donated by our members. When the flowers are no longer needed in the Sanctuary, volunteers meet, take the flowers apart, and arrange them into smaller bouquets for those in the hospital, nursing homes, etc. Volunteers are needed to donate and to deliver flowers.
Connie Crawford, missconnie2u@epbfi.com
Gigi Gross, gggross@epbfi.com

Golf Cart Ministry: The golf cart ministry provides transportation to attendees in need of help getting from the Douglas street church parking lot to the church entrance every Sunday from March through November. The ministry operates with Deacon oversight, having church member drivers in sufficient numbers where each volunteer is only needed from 9:45-11:00 a.m. two to three Sundays a year. We are always looking for new drivers. Anyone interested in this ministry should contact:
Rick Colins, recollins@epbfi.com

Greeters: Each Sunday, volunteers stand at the Connector, the black and white foyer, and the Douglas Street doors, to greet everyone who enters the building. The greeters offer a bulletin or other information as well as a friendly smile and warm welcome to First Pres. These volunteers are the face of the church and make the "first impression." A minimum of 4 volunteers are needed each week.

Marilyn Boxell, msboxell@epbfi.com

Honor Roll: First Presbyterian's honor roll consists of members who are home bound or need assistance getting around (Honored Friends). Volunteers are needed to encourage our honor roll members by delivering Easter cakes and Christmas gifts, sending cards, making calls, and paying visits to members' homes.
Mary Coleman, mcoleman0718@yahoo.com

IAWL (It's A Wonderful Life): A ministry that serves the senior adult members and friends of our church. The meetings are held the second Thursday of each month from September to May. Each gathering begins with a time of fellowship, followed by the meeting itself which includes "joke time," prayer time, devotional, special program, and a hot lunch afterwards. The cost of the lunch is $8.00. Wonderful day trips are offered periodically. A newsletter for this group is printed 4 times a year. We welcome both volunteers and participants!
David Cooper, cannon55@epbfi.com

New Babies Ministry: This ministry coordinates communication of a baby's birth throughout the church so that different ministries and church personnel can do their part in ministering and serving the baby and family.
Meredith Clark, meredithpclark@gmail.com
Teresa North, northh@comcast.net

*Monday Morning Prayer Group: Both men and women join together to pray for our church family and missionaries, and reach out after prayer by sending "We prayed for you today" cards. Weekly, Monday at 10:00 AM, Session Room.
Phyllis Holwerda, pd.holwerda@epbfi.com
Sue Durham

*Phone prayer chain: A long time ministry for some of First Presbyterian's women is to call other women members to join them in prayer for serious medical needs of any church member. You can activate the prayer chain by calling:
Margaret Spangler, (423) 309-4923

"Sing With the Choir" Visitations: Members are invited to sing with a group from our choir as they periodically visit homebound members.

Bonny Clark, (423) 827-5536

Stephen Ministry: Stephen Ministers are lay members of our congregation who receive special training to provide confidential one-to-one Christian care to people experiencing challenges in life—grief, loneliness, divorce, hospitalization, disability, job loss, and many other life difficulties. To learn more about this ministry or to receive care, contact the church office at 423-267-1206 or contact one of the ministry leaders:

Rick Collins, recollins@epbfi.com

John Henegar, johnhenegarcpa@gmail.com

Leslie Cory, lesliecory@comcast.net

Kay Schwieger, krazykay49@gmail.com

Betty Hodges, ehodges@epbfi.com

Support Groups:

Beatitude Living: An anonymous and confidential Christian women's 12 step Program Committed to Recovery. Some of the needs addressed include perfectionism, control, codependency, eating disorders, or coping with the addictions of a family member or friend. Tuesdays 12:00 Noon - 1:00 PM, Room 404.

Nancy Mills, nmills322@aol.com

Gail Pinchak, gailpinchak@yahoo.com

Caregivers Encouragement: The Caregiver's Support Ministry gives encouragement to those who are caring for loved ones. Volunteers are needed to call, write, and/or visit caregivers.

Marcia Christian, mjchris9@gmail.com

Daily Buddy Check: If you live alone and would like someone to check in with you each day, let Congregational Care know@

Teresa North, (423) 309-4759

TLC - Touching Lives for Christ: Volunteer to be part of the committee in your neighborhood (zip code) which takes a meal to someone who is ill, has been hospitalized, had a baby, or experienced a death in the family. Each area has a chairman who coordinates with those in that neighborhood.

C.C. Edwards, ccgedwards@comcast.net

Teresa North, north@comcast.net
Sude Sawrie, suesawrie@gmail.com

Widows/Widowers Ministry: The widows and widowers committee serves our church community by periodically planning luncheons and outings for our widowed members. We also send cards, flowers, and make phone calls of encouragement.
Wilma Lockery, wilmalockery@epbfi.com

Deacons: An elected office

The office of deacon is set forth in the Scriptures as ordinary and perpetual in the Church. The office is one of sympathy and service, after the example of the Lord Jesus; it expresses also the communion of saints, especially in their helping one another in time of need. It is the duty of the deacons to minister to those who are in need, to the sick, to the friendless, and to any who may be in distress. It is their duty also to develop the grace of liberality in the members of the church, to devise effective methods of collecting the gifts of the people, and to distribute these gifts among the objects to which they are contributed. They shall have the care of the property of the congregation, both real and personal, and shall keep in proper repair the church edifice and other buildings belonging to the congregation. In matters of special importance affecting the property of the church, they cannot take final action without the approval of the Session and consent of the congregation.

(Chairman) Mitch Everhart, mitcheverhart@gmail.com
(Vice-Chair) Skip Pond, skip@pondholdings.com
(Secretary) Dale Rardin, Dale Rardin10@gmail.com
(Treasurer) David Gaither, dgaither@scoreintl.org
(Past Chairman) Jasper Reynolds, jasper@liftmediagroup.com

Deacon Committees and Teams:

Facilities Team: Concerned with the state and condition of Church facilities and property, planning for ministry uses of the facilities, its maintenance and general upkeep. The Committee prioritizes and presents needs as part of the budget process and identifies any situations which require immediate action to the Diaconate. The Committee plays an important role in the development and monitoring of a facilities long term master plan, ongoing maintenance plan, and building or renovation projects.
Jasper Reynolds, jasper@liftmediagroup.com

Communications Committee: This committee works to enhance the Church's communications both inside and outside the Church. The committee oversees all aspects of website, video, social media, newsletter and other forms of church communications and publicity.

David Clark, dclark@rssins.com

Mercy & Compassion Committee: The Mercy and Compassion Team is in charge of benevolence to church members and nonmembers, including walk ins. Member assistance is led by the shepherds who present requests to the team on a case by case basis. Nonmembers, including walk-ins, are served through the Rapha Fellowship, a relationship focused ministry that seeks to walk alongside our neighbors in need through a weekly meal and Scripture based educational classes in the areas of relationships, finances, and work. Volunteer Opportunities: Co-leader in weekly Rapha classes, ally/mentor to participants, managing the Attire for Hire store, walk- in appointments, and more!

David Hempy, dhempy@sphereone.net

Finance Committee: Oversees all financial activities of the Church to include oversight of gifts, financial policies, reports, financial documents and practices. The Committee also reviews all church audits, church receipts, disbursements, accounts that are unaudited and receives and reviews requests for money not previously approved. The Finance Committee is the first line of approval for the annual Deacons Budget.

Brent Allred, ballred323@gmail.com

Ministry Support Team: All available Deacons, both active and inactive, are requested to serve on Usher Duty. A head usher is assigned for each service. The chairman and his co-chairman will arrange for all to serve on a rotation basis so that enough ushers are on duty for every worship service. Deacons will also be assigned for requested helps with church related ministry functions, funerals, musical programs and other special services at during the year.

Dale Granberry, daleg13@gmail.com

Leadership Development Team: Identifying, vetting and nominating qualified candidates for election to the office of Deacon. The team also evaluates elements of the Diaconate's culture and structure to ensure healthy recruiting, retention and ongoing training, and makes proposals to the Diaconate accordingly. The committee is made up of all Diaconate committee chairs/team leaders plus 3 at-large members selected by the Diaconate Chairman.

Skip Pond, skip@pondholdings.com

Discipleship Ministries: Church members interested in volunteering in any of the ministries described below may contact the leader of that ministry or the pastor who heads up the Discipleship Ministry Team:

Dick Cain, Senior Assistant Pastor, dick@1stpresbyterian.com

History and Church Archives: The Archives for the First Presbyterian Church of Chattanooga is the physical repository of the historical documents and artifacts pertaining to the church from its founding in 1840. Worship services and ministries are documented and organized chronologically. Special attention focuses on gathering weekly worship service bulletins and announcement sheets. These contain the heart of the record of occasions in our church for worship, education, fellowship and service. Special seasonal activities to record include those of Camp Vesper Point, Missions Conferences, and other special gatherings. There are numerous sources for additional contributions that are considered for inclusion. Volunteers meet weekly to maintain these records.

One-on-One Discipleship: What is discipleship? What is your growth plan? Perhaps you are just getting started. We can help. Perhaps you are mature in your faith yet desire to be discipled so that you can walk with others as they journey toward spiritual maturity. We can help. This is a place of life-on-life discipleship. Contact the names below to discuss your desires to learn more about God and how to be the man God designed you to be. Let us know your time constraints. We will pray with you for guidance so that God will provide the specific man to journey in the scriptures with you seeking growth in wisdom in your work, your family, and relationships. Our desire is to connect in a one-on-one mentoring opportunity. Picture two men connecting to study God's word, pray, and then apply it to life and business. This is highly relational and provides tremendous personal growth. Contact us to ask questions or get connected:

Lee Atchley, leeatchley7@gmail.com

Small Groups: Small groups promote the formation of authentic relationships with other men, studying God's Word together, growing in knowledge and love of God, and applying the truths of the gospel to our lives. If you are interested in being part of a Men's Small Group, contact:

Dick Cain, dick@1stpresbyterian.com

1st Cup, Monthly Men's Breakfast meets this fall on 9/12, 10/3, 11/7, and 12/5, 7am-8am on the 10th Floor. Free breakfast and lots of coffee provided.

Dick Cain, dick@1stpresbyterian.com

Midweek Ministry: Midweek is our large fellowship gathering on Wednesday nights intended to encourage, equip, and empower our church family to reflect the redemptive love of Jesus Christ to one another and beyond through diverse ministry opportunities and teaching for all ages. From mercy ministry to student ministry to adult equipping seminars and more, there is something for everyone! Volunteer opportunities: collecting money, serving line, helping with the various ministries that meet that night. Dinner in the Fellowship Hall at 5:30; ministry opportunities begin at 6:15.
Dick Cain, dick@1stpresbyterian.com

Small Groups: Small Groups are about relationships: growing in our relationship with God and deepening our relationships with others. Within these small groups, men and women can experience fellowship with others as they practice applying the gospel to their lives. Composed of 5 -16 people, small groups meet in various places throughout Chattanooga. All groups are led by trained leaders from our congregation, who receive oversight and support from our pastoral staff. Each small group determines how often it will meet, but groups typically meet two to four times a month. A small group meeting generally consists of worship, Bible study, fellowship, and prayer. Many groups will participate in service projects or social events as well. To learn how to become involved with a small group, register online or contact Dick Cain. Volunteer opportunities include hosting or leading a small group.
Dick Cain, dick@1stpresbyterian.com

Life on Life Groups: The Journey is a gospel-centered resource for discipleship, designed to help a disciple maker develop mature and equipped followers of Christ, who will be able to do the same with others. The curriculum is broken out into three years (Red, Blue, or Green) that are available for individual purchase. Your involvement in a Journey Group will result in you working through an intentional plan for spiritual growth, maturing in your spiritual life, and being equipped to share these principles with others. Your Journey Group will meet regularly in weekly meetings, and Journey Group members are asked to commit to one year at a time. Volunteer opportunities include leading or co-leading a Journey Group.

Outreach Ministries (Home and World Missions):

Randy Nabors, Missions Pastor

Home Missions and Community Outreach. We are working to grow congregational involvement in spreading the Gospel. Church members interested in volunteering in any of the ministries described below may contact the leader listed for that ministry, or one of these Outreach Ministry leaders:

Shad Guinn, Director of Community Outreach, shad@1stpresbyterian.com

Lauch McKinnon, Chair, Outreach Ministry Team, lauch-mckinnon@comcast.net

Channels of Love (Thanksgiving baskets): Channels of Love is a ministry to people and families affected by HIV/AIDS. First Pres members have been giving food baskets at Thanksgiving to their clients for many years now. Some of our members have led their weekly Bible studies and serve in their office.

Mark Jenkins, markjenkins50@hotmail.com

College Ministry: First Pres College Ministry seeks to minister to students of Chattanooga (UTC, Chatt State, Covenant college) through the unique challenges that arise in college. First Pres (in conjunction with RUF and other campus ministries) longs to see students come to know the love of Christ Jesus surrounded by a community of believers.

Dick Cain, dick@1stpresbyterian.com

Foster Care WRAP Team: a group of First Presbyterian members and visitors who walk alongside foster, kinship, and adoptive families in our community, offering support through Words of Encouragement, Respite Care, Acts of Service, and Prayer. Contact Shad Guinn, shad@1stpresbyterian.com

Good News Club: The Good News Club at Orchard Knob Elementary is a ministry of Child Evangelism Fellowship in which trained volunteers meet with children to present an exciting Bible lesson with songs and other fun activities. Each club includes a clear presentation of the Gospel and an opportunity for children to trust Jesus as their Savior. Members can volunteer by being on the Prayer Team, the Club Team, or the Snack Team. Nancy Hill, hills1113@comcast.net

Kids Hope USA: Kids Hope is a children's ministry that represents a "church/school" partnership. Volunteer mentors from 1st Pres. Church are trained and paired with underserved students at Orchard Knob Elementary School. Mentors invest one hour a week, during the school day, to encourage and help change the trajectory of a child's life. We are also seeking dedicated prayer partners to be behind-the-scenes support persons for each mentoring relationship. For more information, contact: Cheri Partain, kidshope@1stpresbyterian.com

Operation Christmas Child:

Join the First Presbyterian family in supporting Samaritan's Purse and the Operation Christmas Child shoebox project. There are several opportunities to volunteer to make this seasonal ministry a success. It's a big job! Contact: Tiffany Whaley, tiff.whaley@gmail.com

Outreach Funding (Home Missions): The purpose of the Outreach Funding Committee is to further enable the ministry of First Pres and its membership by providing funds to support ministry activities which reflect obedience to the Scriptures and spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the Chattanooga area, in the East Tennessee/North Georgia region, and elsewhere within the United States of America. Lauch McKinnon, lauch-mckinnon@comcast.net

Prison Ministry Committee: The Prison Ministry is a Christ-centered ministry where volunteers walk alongside individuals who are incarcerated. Volunteers are needed to help address the spiritual needs of prisoners by caring for and discipling them, and facilitating their return to families, the Christian community, and society. Steve Schwieger, stephen.schwieger@gmail.com

Metanoia Prison Ministries Correspondence Bible Studies: The PCA's prison ministry is headquartered here at First Pres. One thing it offers is correspondence courses to prisoners by matching them with church members as graders and encouragers. Join more than 20 1st Pres members doing this good work!

Raylene Casson, metanoiakorrespondence@pcanet.org

Prison Ministries (Walker State Prison): 1st Pres raises and trains male mentors for ministry at Walker State Prison. More than 100 mentors disciple twice monthly in two-hour one-on-one sessions. Mentors are needed for the 80-90 prisoners on the waiting list.

Women's Prison Ministry at The Next Door: 1st Pres serves women being released from prison through residence at The Next Door in Chattanooga, a halfway house-like facility for women leaving State Prison. Opportunities are available to women in our congregation to mentor residents and to join in select group activities there.

Leslie Cory, lesliecory@comcast.net

Rapha is ministry of First Presbyterian Church of Chattanooga that seeks to build relationships with our neighbors in need. While conventional mercy ministry relies on financial handouts, Rapha invites our neighbors in need into healing relationships with a loving church family.

Shad Guinn, shad@1stpresbyterian.com

Wednesday nights:

Fellowship Dinner: 5:30-6:15

Classes: 6:15-7:30

Rapha offers three different educational courses. Note: If you are interested in attending, please contact Pam Adams at Pam@1stpresbyterian.com

Faith & Works - focuses on the gifts that God has given and why He created work. Participants will create a resume, create and present a life map, create a 60 second commercial for potential employers, and so much more.

Faith and Finances- focuses on discussions about how we spend, manage, and save our money in a way that honors God, guards us against emergencies, and allows us to provide for our families.

Participants will role play, set short-term and long-term savings goals, and create a custom monthly spending plan.

Faith and Relationships- Discussion focuses on our relationships with God and interpersonal relationships with each other, for example marriage and childrearing.

With a dedicated team of classroom facilitators, prayer warriors and lay mentors, Rapha is equipping the congregation to grow as a more welcoming church home for our neighbors in need. Rapha needs more volunteers like you!

Friday Morning at Salvation Army meets on Fridays at First Pres (connector building) for prayer at 9:00 and then drive as a group to the Salvation Army on McCallie Avenue. We provide music, devotion, and breakfast for approximately 25 individuals. Salvation Army's case worker also sends us screened referrals for our consideration of financial assistance. Ministry includes sharing our faith in Jesus Christ, encouragement, friendship, counseling, and prayer.

Volunteers are warmly invited.

World Missions:

World Missions is the foreign missions arm of First Presbyterian Church tasked with making disciples in the world—facilitated through the targeted selection and funding of missionaries, indigenous church planters, short-term teams, and projects that promote the establishment, growth, and maturation of indigenous-led churches and movements in strategic global cities.

World Missions offers a variety of ways to volunteer one's time and talents that include service on the following committees: First Friends, Missionary Closet, World Relief and Development, candidate selection, candidate evaluation for missionaries, church plant evaluations, conference planning team, and Prayer Team. Additional ways to serve include providing hospitality to visiting missionaries, participating on a short-term mission trip, and volunteering for events and jobs during the annual World Missions Conference held in October.

First Friends: A team of caring First Pres. Friends of all ages who unconditionally befriend and love international college students and scholars while they study locally. We offer Bible studies, conversational English classes, recreational activities, parties, concerts, sports/games, shared meals, and a listening ear. Join us to serve our Lord by taking care of His young "strangers in a strange land." If you can smile and be a friend, you're totally qualified to volunteer. Join First Friends to serve Our Lord and stay for the love and fun.

Missionary Closet: The Hattie McCallie Missionary Closet provides quality, up-to-date clothing, accessories, and luggage to missionaries supported by First Pres and Lookout Mountain Pres. Volunteers are needed monthly to sort and display donations and to assist during the World Missions Conference in October. Volunteers meet on the 2nd Wednesday of each month from 9 -11 am on the 6th floor of the Tower building.

Music Ministry –

Our mission: As a ministry of music, our goal is God: to delight in him and help others do the same through the great hymns of the faith and the fresh, doctrinally rich songs of our day (Col 3:16, Eph 5:19). As a ministry our aim is to help the Church extol the greatness, wonder, beauty, and perfections of our God, in the power of the Holy Spirit, through the finished work of Jesus Christ. Volunteer Opportunities: Adult choir, Instrumental Ensemble, audio techs, vocalists, worship band musicians (guitar, bass, keyboard, percussion), handbells, music filing volunteers.

Note: Although we update this directory twice a year, that does not guarantee a totally up-to-date directory. If you are interested in participating in a particular ministry, reach out to that ministry's contact person as listed in this directory to get the most current information. If have trouble connecting with a ministry leader, contact Leslie Cory, lesliecory@comcast.net.
