

Dear Faithful, WELCOME BACK!!! In the last 12 months we have missed you! During that time we have been hard at work beautifying our sanctuary, perfecting our dancing, refining our cooking, and enhancing our customer service technologies for your arrival! For the ancient Greeks, hospitality (or "Philoxenia") was considered a sacred duty, and it is that same spirit that fuels us here at Saint Nicholas. It is for this reason, I feel privileged to be able to say: "Welcome to the 35th Annual Wilmington Greek Festival!"

Once inside our festival we urge you to try our homemade traditional Greek foods, and delectable sweets. We are confident you will enjoy our award-winning Hellenic dancing and festive music. And before you leave, make sure to stop by our shopping exhibits and, most importantly, our Church tours to experience the beauty and majesty of our Orthodox Christian Faith. It is our honor to share our home with you, and we pray that as you journey through the grounds you will feel like this is your home as well.

On behalf of our entire St. Nicholas Family, I thank you for your patronage and support. I hope you enjoy your stay, and whether it is a to-go bag of treats, a smile, a memory, or a blessing, we pray you take home a little something extra when you leave!

Your host and Pastor,

Fr. Steven Klund
Rev. Fr. Steven Klund
