

If you are unsettled by life, does it really help to stop focusing on the trouble and instead believe in God and Jesus? Why or why not?

When you are unsettled by the circumstances of life, how is a promised future in heaven with Jesus helpful?

Do people have a hard time accepting the fact that Jesus is the only way to heaven? Why or why not?

How does the study and application of God's word help us avoid the lies of this world and follow Jesus?