

We are told by Paul not to think exactly like each other. What did Paul say was the one thing on which we, as Christians, are to have one mind?

What are some practical ways to regard others as more important than yourself (2:3)?

Does your outlook on the world change when you read, every knee will bow and every tongue will confess Jesus as Lord? Why or why not?

Compare and contrast typical worldly leaders with the attitude of Jesus Christ. What do you learn from this comparison and contrast?