Sermon Notes

Luke 9:1 And he called the twelve together and gave them power and authority over all demons and to cure diseases, 2 and he sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God and to heal. 3 And he said to them, “Take nothing for your journey, no staff, nor bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not have two tunics. 4 And whatever house you enter, stay there, and from there depart. 5 And wherever they do not receive you, when you leave that town shake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them.” 6 And they departed and went through the villages, preaching the gospel and healing everywhere. Big Idea:

2 Corinthians 5:20 Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us. We plead on Christ’s behalf: “Be reconciled to God.” CSB

For Reflection and Application:

Monday:

Read Luke 9:1-2. As believers today, what do we have in common with the twelve apostles? How are we different? How does 2 Corinthians 5:20-21 relate? What does it mean to be an ambassador for Christ and how can you apply this to your life?

Tuesday:

Read Luke 9:3. Later, in Luke 22:35-36, Jesus reviews the requirements from Luke 9:3 and then alters them. Why do you think Jesus gave the original requirements in Luke 9:3? How does Luke 12:22-31 relate? How can you apply this?

Wednesday

Read Luke 9:4. Apparently, Jesus gave these instructions to avoid the appearance of going from house-to-house hoping to find better accommodations, thereby abusing the conventions of first-century hospitality to their advantage. How does 2 Corinthians 6:3 relate? How can you apply this today?

Thursday:

Read Luke 9:5. In carrying out their mission, what were the twelve apostles to expect? How does Luke 10:16 relate? What difference does this make to you?

Friday:

Read Luke 9:6. Compare this to Matthew 28:19-20 and Acts 1:8. What is our responsibility as believers? How can you apply this?

Daily Prayer:

Lord, as your ambassador, help me to represent you and your interests well to a world that desperately needs you. Amen.
