

Sunday Morning Bible Study in the Fireside Room at 9:30 AM

Please know that you are welcome to join Dr. Joseph B. Modica, University Chaplain of Eastern University in a semester-long study of The Letter of James.

The Letter of James can be thought of as New Testament wisdom literature. The author James provides his readers with ethical instruction; the values that build and sustain communities. Scholars have argued that James is, in many ways, a commentary on Jesus' Sermon on the Mount (see Matthew 5-7).

Please join us to explore this wonderful letter of the New Testament. Classes are held in the Fireside Room each Sunday at 9:30 AM now through May 14th. Even if you're unable to attend most of the classes, feel free to attend when you can. Each class stands on its own and is meant to offer something for the attendee.

Dr. Modica is using a brief and accessible commentary: Patrick J. Hartin, James, First Peter, Jude, Second Peter. New Collegeville Bible Commentary. Volume 10. Collegeville, MN: Liturgical Press, 2006.

In addition, a brief (8 minute) video can be found at www.thebibleproject.com. Here is the LINK to the video on The Letter of James.

For more information and/or to get on the email list for the Zoom link please email Todd Cameron at wtoddcameron@gmail.com or Sal Ambrosio at sambrosio55@gmail.com