STATE OF ISRAEL IS BORN

The first independent Jewish State in 19 centuries was born in Tel Aviv as the British Mandate over Palestine came to an end at midnight on Friday, and it was immediately subjected to the test of fire. As "Medinat Yisrael" (State of Israel) was proclaimed, the battle for Jerusalem raged, with most of the city falling to the Jews. At the same time, President Truman announced that the United States would accord recognition to the new State. A few hours later, Palestine was invaded by Moslem armies from the south, east and north, and Tel Aviv was raided from the air. On Friday the United Nations Special Assembly adjourned after adopting a resolution to appoint a mediator but without taking any action on the Partition Resolution of November 29.

Yesterday the battle for the Jerusalem-Tel Aviv road was still under way, and two Arab villages were taken. In the north, Acre town was captured, and the Jewish Army consolidated its positions in Western Galilee.

Egyptian Air Force Spitfires Bomb Tel Aviv; One Shot Down

Tel Aviv, the Tel Aviv broadcast station, reported that a Spitfire was shot down in the city on Friday night. The plane was seen at a height of 500 feet. Two dropped bombs, while the other strafed the city. Little damage was done. In the second raid, an hour later, the Spitfire was shot down north of the city. An Air Force Spitfire was shot down in the third raid which was shortly before midnight. The planes were driven out causing any damage.

A country-wide blackout was ordered by the British High Commissioners in Tel Aviv. Mr. David Ben-Gurion, the Prime Minister, broadcast from Tel Aviv on Friday morning. As he spoke, anti-aircraft planes were firing in the city. In the north, the settlements of Ein Gev and Shaar Hagolan and Dan had been shelled, but no further details were known. The air raid on Tel Aviv was the first since the Jewish Provisional Council was established. The White House press secretary, Mr. Charles Ross, told correspondents today that reaction so far to the recognition had been overwhelmingly favourable. He said that the State Department had been discussed with Mr. Marshall and Mr. Lovett. A decision was taken, and the complete support.

U.S. RECOGNIZES JEWISH STATE

WASHINGTON, Saturday. — The United States today announced that it had recognized the Jewish State as the de facto authority representing the Jewish State. The U.S. is also considering lifting the arms embargo but it is not clear whether to Palestine or to the Middle East, as the settlement of diplomatic relations with the Jewish Provisional Council.
