PSALTER READING - John

Psalm 42: 1-3, 7-11

As a deer longs for flowing streams,
so my soul longs for you, O God.

My soul thirsts for God,
for the living God.
When shall I come and behold
the face of God?

My tears have been my food
day and night,
while people say to me continually,
“Where is your God?”

Deep calls to deep
at the thunder of your torrents;
all your waves and your billows
have gone over me.

By day the Lord commands steadfast love,
and at night God's song is with me,
a prayer to the God of my life.
I say to God, my rock,
“Why have you forgotten me?
Why must I walk about mournfully
because the enemy oppresses me?”

As with a deadly wound in my body,
my adversaries taunt me,
while they say to me continually,
“Where is your God?”

Why are you cast down, O my soul,
and why are you disquieted within me?

Hope in God, for I shall again praise the Lord,
my help and my God.
