

Playlist 9: Heaven's Song

November 19-20, 2022: Pastor Dick Foth

This resource is a springboard for discussion and a catalyst for further study, based on the weekend message. Please choose from any - or all - of the parts that are useful for your group.

- How have you responded to the Book of Revelation?
- What is something that really impacted you from Pastor Dick's message?

1. The Revelation is filled with worship in song.

- Read Revelation 5:11-14 and Isaiah 9:6.
 - In your experience, how has God revealed himself to you through scripture, books, or experience?
 - What names of God come to mind that show an aspect of His character?

2. The Revelation shows us a King.

- Pastor Dick said that God impressed on him this idea: Don't tell others what to do. Tell them Who I am. I will tell them what to do.
 - What are the implications of this way of thinking?
 - To what other areas of life can this approach be applied?

3. That King is holy, all-powerful, and eternal.

- Discuss Isaiah 6:1-4, Matthew 28:18, Zechariah 6:12-13, and Philippians 2:5-11.
- On a human level, what can we learn from God's example about effective leadership?

4. That King lives in a city of unceasing song.

- Read Hebrews 11:13-16, Hebrews 12:22-24 and 28, John 14:2-3 and discuss this quote from the message:
 - "In heaven, no one will merely mouth the words or go through the motions of worship; all will sing with hearts ablaze...worship in heaven will be spontaneous, genuinely exhilarating." ~ Dr. Robert Jeffress, A Place Called Heaven
 - Think about this: How will we maintain a posture of worship for eternity?
 - What can we do to better prepare for our other "home?"
