EVERYBODY NEEDS A PLACE

You can find yours here.

Here is a place that is ancient and new, a faith that we hold going back to Jesus, back to his spiritual ancestors, back to those who walked the earth and found holy ground. And what we do is often based on really ancient patterns—worship and music; loving service to the poor, the hurting, the lonely; working for justice and peace; lively, fearless education and formation of minds and souls. And that faith is also completely contemporary, engaged in the culture and the needs of the moment.

What we are for

The dignity and worth of every person. An open minded, passionate commitment to truth. The importance of everyone's own spiritual journey. God's friends wherever we find them. Seeking Christ in every person who comes through the door. The sacredness of life's rites of passage. The value of community. The hard work necessary to make sure that all are welcomed. Telling the truth about life's challenges. A "user-friendly" church experience. Children, youth and families.

What we are against

Claiming to have all the answers. Elitism and exclusivism, especially in church. Bigotry for any reason. Authoritarianism. Indifference to injustice and suffering. Certitude in the face of ambiguity and superficial answers to hard questions. Boring sermons, bad music and general cluelessness. (So, God help us, because we don't always avoid these!)

What we value

Community, open hearts, open minds, open arms. Faith. Fortitude. Staying current, but equally staying rooted in tradition. Reason and honesty. Civic responsibility as New Yorkers, Americans and global citizens. Debate that allows for mutual respect. Music and beauty for their own sake. Joy in God's creation. Anyone who makes an effort to get to know and follow Jesus.

Prelude Lebhaft and Allegretto (Four Sketches, Op. 58 ), Robert Schumann (1810-1856)

The people stand.

Hymn 490

1 I want to walk as a child of the light.
2 I want to see the brightness of God.
3 I'm looking for the coming of Christ.

I want to follow Je sus.
I want to look at Je sus.
I want to be with Je sus.

God set the stars to give light to the world. The Clear sun of right-eous-ness, shine on my path, and When we have run with pa-tience the race, we star of my life is Je sus.

show me the way to the Fa ther.
shall know the joy of Je sus.

Refrain

In him there is no darkness at all. The night and the day are both a - like. The Lamb is the light of the ci - ty of God.

a tempo

rit.

Words and Music: Houston, Kathleen Thomerson (1934-2025).

The Opening Acclamation

Presider Arise, shine, for our Light has come!
People And the glory of God has risen upon us.

Presider Lift up your eyes and look!
People See and be radiant!

Presider From east and west we have traveled;
People from south and north we have gathered together.

Presider Our hearts thrill and rejoice,
People and we proclaim God's praise.

The Ministry of the Word

The Collect

Presider May God be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Together, let us pray.
All O God of light, your searching Spirit reveals and illuminates your presence in creation. Shine your radiant holiness into our lives, that we may offer our hands and hearts to your work: to heal and shelter, to feed and clothe, to break every yoke and silence evil tongues. Amen.

The people sit.

The Lesson Isaiah 58:1-12

Lector A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah.

Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgments, they delight to draw near to God. "Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?" Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers. Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the Lord? Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am. If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. The Lord will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

The people stand as the music begins.

Gospel Acclamation

A - rise, shine, for your light has come, and the glo-ry of the Lord has dawned up-on you.

Words: Isaiah 60:1.

Music: Ruth Cunningham (b. 1956).

The Holy Gospel Matthew 5:13-20

Preacher The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Preacher Jesus said, “You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot. You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven. Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.”

Preacher The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

After the preacher introduces the sermon, the people sit.

The Sermon The Reverend Meredith E. Ward, Senior Associate Rector

An extended period of silence is kept. The people stand as the music begins.

The Prayers of the People

Presider God of epiphanies: in sudden moments of sacred insight, you burst through the heavens to reveal yourself on earth. Shine your light into our hearts, and make yourself known to us, we pray.

Intercessor I In Bethlehem of Judea, you appeared to travelers from the East, transcending the boundaries of nationality, religion, and race. Make yourself known to outsiders of every kind, and teach us to build bridges with people of different backgrounds and life experiences.

All God of e - piph - a - nies, make your - self known.

Intercessor II Over the river Jordan, you appeared like a dove, announcing your love for all to hear. Make yourself known in this and every land. Descend like a dove into our world's strife, and transform its discord into a love that resembles yours.

People God of epiphanies, make yourself known.

Intercessor III By the sea of Galilee, you appeared to your disciples, urging them to follow you. Make yourself known to the Church throughout the world. Empower us to pursue the mission you have asked us to fulfill. Inspire us to fish for people, even in the face of difficulty and fear.

People God of epiphanies, make yourself known.

Intercessor I High on a mountain, you appeared to large crowds, proclaiming the blessedness of those who hunger and thirst. Make yourself known to all who are suffering or in need, including those we now name.

The people may add their own petitions.

People God of epiphanies, make yourself known.

Intercessor II Dazzling and transfigured, you appeared with Moses and Elijah, bridging the gap between the living and the dead. Make yourself known to the dying and those who have died, including those we now name.

The people may add their own petitions.

People God of epiphanies, make yourself known.

Intercessor III Like a great light in the midst of deep darkness, you have appeared among us, again and again. Hear now our prayers of thanksgiving for all the ways in which you have made yourself known in our lives, including those we now name.

The people may add their own petitions.

People God of epiphanies, make yourself known.

Presider God of epiphanies, giver of love's law, in whom there is no blandness, no dullness of oppression; liberate from all that numbs compassion to find in your commands light undimmed and flavor unrestrained; through Jesus Christ, fulfiller of the law.

All Amen.

The Peace

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God's peace with one another and then sit.

Welcome and Announcements

The Offertory

- :: We extend a special welcome to all who are new to St. Bart's today.
Please visit stbarts.org/hello to let us know who you are!
- :: Many are surprised to learn that St. Bart's does not have a large endowment.
We rely on the generosity of members and visitors alike to sustain our ministries for the future. Visit stbarts.org/give or place your offering in the plate as it is passed. Thank you for your support!

Anthem St. Bart's Singers

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee. Alleluia.
O praise the Lord, all ye nations:
praise him, all ye people.
For his merciful kindness is great toward us:
and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever.
Alleluia.

Words: Isaiah 60:1, Psalm 117:1-2.
Music: Healey Willan (1880-1968).

The people stand.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider      The Lord be with you.
People      And also with you.
Presider      Lift up your hearts.
People      We lift them to the Lord.
Presider      Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.
People      It is right to give our thanks and praise.
Presider      It is truly right to thank and praise you, O God, radiant and resplendent, beauty so old and so new. You live forever in light we cannot see—brightness too dazzling for our eyes. And yet glimpses of your glory still manage to break into our troubled world.
Basking in every fragment, each ray that you send, we join with the angels of heaven to sing the everlasting hymn:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Ho - ly,   Ho - ly,   Ho - ly   Lord,   God   of   pow'r— and   God   of   might.

Heav'n and   earth are   full of your   glo-ry,   Ho - san - na   in   the   High - est.

Bless - ed   is   the   one   who   comes   in   the   name   of   the   Lord,

Ho - san - na   in   the   high - est,   ho - san - na   in   the   high - est.

Music: Puer nobis, melody from Trier MS., 15th cent.; adapt. Michael Praetorius (1571-1621).

Presider      Blessed indeed is Jesus, who entered our gloom and despair. He shared our flesh and blood and became like us in every respect. Born a tiny infant, he grew in strength and wisdom until, in time, he claimed his mission: to fish for people—to teach, to preach, and to heal. From his earliest days to his last, multitudes attested to his greatness: rulers came to pay their respects; prophets deferred to his standing; Moses and Elijah appeared alongside him. Christ is still our guiding Lamp, our bright Morning Star. We adore your Beloved Child, in whom you are well-pleased.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Great is the mystery of faith:

All      Christ has died.
              Christ is risen.
              Christ will come again.

Presider Open the heavens, O God, and send down your Holy Spirit to bless these gifts of bread and wine we offer, that they may be for us Christ's Body and Blood. By that same Spirit, who anointed Jesus at the river Jordan, anoint us to be your Church: a joyous community, united across difference, free of anger and violence, full of love and affection, devoted to the outcast and the poor. May Christ come quickly to usher in the dawn of justice and peace and to gather us with the people of every race and nation on that holy mountain-top, where we will see you face to face.

Confident in the glory about to be revealed, we make our prayer through Christ who, with you and the Spirit, shines forever in brilliance that never fades.

All AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction Anthem

The presider breaks the bread. Silence is kept.

Presider We break this bread for all the broken, who sit in the shadow of death.
People May the light of Christ shine into every darkness.

The Invitation to Communion

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God: more precious than gold, more fragrant than incense, more soothing than myrrh. Christ, who has received our gifts, now gives himself to us.

The people sit.

At the Communion

- All are welcome to receive Holy Communion. Please follow the instructions of the ushers. Both bread and wine are offered. After receiving the bread, please proceed to the chalice of wine if you would like to receive it. Wine is received by drinking from the common cup.
- If you require a gluten-free wafer, simply request one from the communion minister when the bread is offered to you.
- Those who do not wish to receive communion are still invited to receive a blessing. Please cross your arms over your chest to indicate that you would like a blessing.
- If you are unable to travel to a communion station, please alert an usher so that communion can be brought to you.

Anthem St. Bart's Singers

The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord lift his countenance upon you, and give you peace.
The Lord make his face to shine upon you,
and be gracious unto you.
Amen.

Words: Based on Numbers 6: 24-26.
Music: Peter C. Lutkin (1858-1931).

The people stand.

The Prayer after Communion

Presider Let us pray.
All God of all holiness, in this temple we have seen and tasted your salvation. Send us now in peace to proclaim your revelation to every people and share your light with all the world. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

The Blessing

Hymn from Lift Every Voice and Sing #221
