CHURCH
IN THE CITY OF
✧NEW YORK✧

The Day of Pentecost

Contemplative Eucharist at 5 pm

May 24, 2026

325 PARK AVENUE
NEW YORK, NY 10022

You can find yours here.

Here is a place that is ancient and new, a faith that we hold going back to Jesus, back to his spiritual ancestors, back to those who walked the earth and found holy ground. And what we do is often based on really ancient patterns—worship and music; loving service to the poor, the hurting, the lonely; working for justice and peace; lively, fearless education and formation of minds and souls. And that faith is also completely contemporary, engaged in the culture and the needs of the moment.

What we are for

The dignity and worth of every person. An open-minded, passionate commitment to truth. The importance of everyone's own spiritual journey. God's friends wherever we find them. Seeking Christ in every person who comes through the door. The sacredness of life's rites of passage. The value of community. The hard work necessary to make sure that all are welcomed. Telling the truth about life's challenges. A "user-friendly" church experience. Children, youth and families.

What we are against

Claiming to have all the answers. Elitism and exclusivism, especially in church. Bigotry for any reason. Authoritarianism. Indifference to injustice and suffering. Certitude in the face of ambiguity and superficial answers to hard questions. Boring sermons, bad music and general cluelessness. (So, God help us, because we don't always avoid these!)

What we value

Community, open hearts, open minds, open arms. Faith. Fortitude. Staying current, but equally staying rooted in tradition. Reason and honesty. Civic responsibility as New Yorkers, Americans, and global citizens. Debate that allows for mutual respect. Music and beauty for their own sake. Joy in God's creation. Anyone who makes an effort to get to know and follow Jesus.

Welcome!

Hymn 115 from Lift Every Voice and Sing, II

Spir - it of the Liv - ing God, Fall fresh on me,

Spir - it of the Liv - ing God, Fall fresh on me.

Melt me, mold me, Fill me, use me.

Spir - it of the Liv - ing God, Fall fresh on me.

Words and Music: Daniel Iverson (1890-1977).

The people stand with the presider.

The Prayer for the Evening

Presider Be present, Spirit of God, within us, your dwelling place and home, that this house may be one where all darkness is penetrated by your light, all troubles calmed by your peace, all evil redeemed by your love, all pain transformed in your suffering, and all dying glorified in your risen life.

All Amen.

The Ministry of the Word

The Collect

Presider May God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Together, let us pray.

All Spirit of truth whom the world can never grasp, touch our hearts with the shock of your coming: fill us with desire for your disturbing peace; and fire us with longing to speak your uncontainable word through Jesus Christ. Amen.

The people sit.

The Lesson Acts 2:1-21

Lector A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'"

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

An extended period of silence is kept. The people stand as the music begins.

Music: Down Ampney, Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958).

The Holy Gospel John 7:37-39

Preacher The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Preacher On the last day of the festival, the great day, while Jesus was standing there, he cried out, "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me, and let the one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said, 'Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living water.'" Now he said this about the Spirit, which believers in him were to receive; for as yet there was no Spirit, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Preacher The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

After the preacher introduces the sermon, the people sit.

The Sermon The Reverend Meredith E. Ward, Senior Associate Rector

An extended period of silence is kept. The people stand.

The Prayers of the People

Words: The Pentecost Sequence; translation: "Come, Holy Spirit".
Music: Jacques Berthier (1923-1994).

Cantor Come, Holy Spirit,
from heaven shine forth
with your glorious light.
Veni Sancte Spiritus.

Come, Father of the poor,
come, generous Spirit,
come, light of our hearts.
Veni Sancte Spiritus.

Come from the four winds, O Spirit,
come breath of God;
disperse the shadows over us,
renew and strengthen your people.

Father of the poor, come to our poverty.
Shower upon us the seven gifts of your grace.
Be the light our lives, O come,
Veni Creator Spiritus.

You are our only comforter, Peace of the soul.
In the heat, you shade us; in our labor you refresh us
and in trouble you are our strength.

Kindle in our hearts the flame of your love that in the darkness of the world
it may grow and reach to all forever.

Presider Living God, eternal Holy Spirit, let your bright intoxicating energy which fired those first disciples fall on us to turn the world again. Hear this prayer for your love's sake.

All Amen.

The Peace

Presider      The peace of Christ be always with you.
People          And also with you.

The people exchange a sign of God's peace with one another and then sit.

Interlude

The people stand.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider      May God be with you.
People          And also with you.

Presider      Lift up your hearts.
People          We lift them up to God.

Presider      Let us give thanks to the Holy One, our God.
People          It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider      God of wind and flame, we praise you for your wild beauty flying free in the shining air. Your Spirit nurtured life in outrageous diversity; she raised up judges to protect the weak, made kings to dance in ecstasy, and prophets burn with holy anger. Through the Spirit, the Word became flesh and the world was called to hear his voice; she drove him to the desert, his first sure step to victory over death and division. When he left his followers, she was poured out on all flesh and scrambled the lines between male and female, slave and free, Jew and gentile. She is with us now, bringing Christ near, filling our worship, guiding us in hope.

Therefore, with all God's rainbow people, and all who have tasted the Spirit of life, with the thirsty and the cold, and all who long to dream again, we worship your glory, as heaven touches earth:

Sanctus and Benedictus

Ho - ly, ho - ly,
ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

Music: from Communion Service, Op. 71, William Mathias (1934-1992).

Presider

We ask that your Holy Spirit will fall upon us and upon these gifts, that these fragile, earthly things may be to us the body and blood of our lord and brother, Jesus Christ; who, on the night that he was betrayed, gathered with his faltering friends for a meal that tasted of freedom. Calling them to his table, he took bread, gave thanks, broke it and said: "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me." In the same way after supper, he took the cup, saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, whenever you drink it, to remember me." As on that night, so here and now he offers himself in touch and taste beyond all words can hold.

People

Great is the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Presider

Therefore in our eating and drinking we are filled with the life-giving presence of Christ; we proclaim him as creation's host, transforming poverty into plenty in the reckless generosity of love.

Inspire us with the hope that one day death and greed will be no more and people without number will come from east and west, north and south, to share the kingdom meal. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, by whom and with whom and in whom in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory be yours, Mother of blessings, for ever and ever.

All

Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray,
All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Fraction Anthem

The presider breaks the bread. Silence is kept.

Presider Come, Holy Spirit, our Comforter and Advocate. Through the broken bread that is Christ, be present to us, his broken body.
People Heal our divisions; make us whole.

The Invitation to Communion

Presider The One who promised to be with us to the end of the world keeps his promise in this bread. The One whose Spirit descended on his disciples with startling power embraces us in this cup. Come, taste, and see.

The people sit.

At the Communion

- All are welcome to receive Holy Communion, including children. Please follow the instructions of the ushers. Both bread and wine are offered. After receiving the bread, please proceed to the chalice of wine if you would like to receive it. Wine is received by drinking from the common cup.
- If you require a gluten-free wafer, simply request one from the communion minister when the bread is offered to you.
- Those who do not wish to receive communion are still invited to receive a blessing. Please cross your arms over your chest to indicate that you would like a blessing.
- If you are unable to travel to a communion station, please alert an usher so that communion can be brought to you.

The people stand.

The Prayer after Communion

Presider Let us pray.
All Faithful God, you fulfilled the promise of Christ by sending us your Holy Spirit and showering on people of every language and background your compassion and grace: empower us by that same Spirit to proclaim your love and inclusion to all the world. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

The Evening Canticle and Antiphon

All Guide us waking, O God, and guard us sleeping, that awake we may watch with Christ, and asleep we may rest in peace.

Presider Praise be to God, we have lived to see this day. God's promise is fulfilled, and our duty is done. At last you have given us peace, for we have seen with our own eyes the salvation you have prepared for all nations, a light to the world in its darkness, and the glory of your people Israel.

All Guide us waking, O God, and guard us sleeping, that awake we may watch with Christ, and asleep we may rest in peace.
