

KIRK IN THE HILLS
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (U.S.A.)
9:00 & 11:00 A.M. SANCTUARY WORSHIP
FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY | FEBRUARY 8, 2026

A Note from Rev. Dr. Edwin Estevez

Welcome to worship at Kirk in the Hills. Whether you come today full of energy or quietly weary, you are not alone—and you are welcome. This week, our mountaintop journey takes us to one of Scripture's most tender stories, as Elijah encounters God on Mount Horeb.

In 1 Kings 19, Elijah arrives at the mountain exhausted and discouraged. He has known great victories, yet now feels depleted and afraid. He expects God to appear in dramatic displays of power—wind, earthquake, and fire. Instead, God comes in “a sound of sheer silence.” The mountain becomes not a place of spectacle, but of restoration.

This story speaks to anyone who feels worn down by the demands of life or faith. Not every encounter with God is dramatic. Some are quiet, gentle, and deeply healing. God meets Elijah not with rebuke, but with presence.

Worship today offers space to breathe and listen. In a noisy and hurried world, silence itself becomes holy ground. As you worship, resist the urge to rush. Attend to the stillness. Trust that God's whisper may be shaping you in ways unseen. Let us worship the Living God.

OFFERTORY

Dear Lord and Father

C. Hubert H. Parry

*Dear Lord and Father of mankind,
Forgive our foolish ways;
Reclothe us in our rightful mind;
In purer lives, thy service find,
In deeper reverence, praise.*

*In simple trust like theirs who heard,
Beside the Syrian sea,
The gracious calling of the Lord,
Let us, like them, without a word,
Rise up and follow thee.*

*Drop thy still dew of quietness,
Till all our strivings cease:
Take from our souls the strain and stress,
And let our ordered lives confess
The beauty of thy peace.*

*Breathe through the heats of our desire
thy coolness and thy balm;
Let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
Speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
O still small voice of calm! (Whittier)*

* DOXOLOGY (Hymn 606)

INFORMATION ON TODAY'S SERVICES

Musicians: Merideth Hite Estevez, oboe; Carol Beth Litkouhi and Bobby DeLisle, Children and Youth Music directors; James Biery and Marilyn Biery, organists and directors.

About the music: During Black History Month we highlight compositions and arrangements by Black composers. Florence Beatrice Price (1887-1953) was an American composer, pianist, organist and music teacher. Born in Little Rock, Arkansas, Price was educated at the New England Conservatory of Music and was active in Chicago from 1927 until her death in 1953. She was the first African American woman to be recognized as a symphonic composer, and the first to have a composition played by a major orchestra. Price composed over 300 works including symphonies, concertos, choral works, art songs, chamber music and music for solo instruments. In 2009, a substantial collection of her compositions was found in her abandoned summer home.

Olufela Obafunmilayo "Fela" Sowande (1905 – 1987) was a Nigerian musician and composer. Considered the father of modern Nigerian art music, Sowande an internationally known African composer of works in the European "classical" idiom. He earned a Bachelor of Music degree at the University of London and became a Fellow of Trinity College of Music. During World War II, he worked as musical advisor for the Colonial Film Unit of the Ministry of Information providing background music for educational films and lectured on music for the BBC Africa Service. In his later years he taught at Kent State University in Ohio.
