

All Saints' Episcopal Church

The Fourth Sunday of Easter

Holy Eucharist Rite II

Sunday, April 21, 2024 ♦ 9:00 am ♦ 11:15 am

Welcome Home!

Welcome to worship at All Saints'. If this is your first time with us, we invite you to complete a newcomer card by scanning the QR code on the back of this bulletin. All are welcome to receive communion at God's table, the clergy are happy to speak with you at any time, and we're delighted you're here. Welcome home!

Worship note

Easter is the principal feast of the Christian year, in which we celebrate Christ's victory over death and the grave. We celebrate the Paschal Mystery every Sunday, but in this 50-day season of Eastertide, resurrection has a particular focus. You will notice bright and festive hymnody, prayers from a wonderful resource called Rites and Rituals, and the familiar Eucharistic Prayer, known as "Prayer A." This quotation seems especially poignant: "We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts" (BCP p. 363)

May this season fill you with Easter joy, which speaks life into the face of death. Alleluia! Christ is risen.
The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Prelude | 9 am

"Do unto others" (The Golden Rule)

Vicki Hancock Wright

All Saints' Cherub and Primary Choirs

Do unto others as you would have them do unto you.
Be kind to others, be good to others, be fair to others as you would have them do unto you.
Try to be patient and forgiving, a friend in all you say and do.
God will guide you to love others, as God has shown love to you.

The whole world sings alleluia! Psalm 118

Wayne L. Wold (b. 1954)

This is the day the Lord has made let us rejoice; the whole world sings alleluia.
The stone is gone and sunlight fills the empty tomb; the whole world sings alleluia.
Come sing, come dance, come celebrate this joyful day; the whole world sings alleluia.

Collect of the Day |

Officiant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Officiant Let us pray.

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of your people: Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calls us each by name, and follow where he leads; who, with you and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The people are seated.

The First Lesson | Acts 4:5–12

The rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, “By what power or by what name did you do this?” Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is ‘the stone that was rejected by you, the builders;

it has become the cornerstone.’

There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved.”

Gradual Hymn | 9 am

“The Lord is like a shepherd” Psalm 23

Sue Ellen Page (1949–2016)

All Saints' Primary and Junior Choirs • Hillary Yankey, flute

The Lord is like a shepherd and I am like a sheep.
He leads me through green pastures and watches while I sleep.
By waters cool and peaceful the Lord revives my soul,
And through the gloomy valley he leads me to the goal.
Though shadows may surround me, I fear not dark or foe.
I know my shepherd guards me wherever I may go.
The table set before me with goodness overflows.
His mercy and his kindness shall bring me safely home.

The people remain seated and sing the psalm.

1. The Lord is my shepherd; * I shall not be in want. 2. He makes me lie down in green pastures * and leads me beside still waters. 3. He re-vives my soul * and guides me along for his Name's sake. right pathways

4. Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil; * for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

5. You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; * you have anointed my head with oil, my cup is running over.

6. Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, * and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Second Lesson | 1 John 3:16–24

We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us—and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God’s love abide in anyone who has the world’s goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help?

Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.

And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

Celtic Alleluia

Christopher Walker (b. 1949) and Fintan Carroll (1922–1981)

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!
Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

The image shows two staves of musical notation for the Celtic Alleluia. Both staves are in the key of D major (two sharps) and 4/4 time. The melody is written on a treble clef. The first staff begins with a quarter note on G4, followed by quarter notes on A4, B4, and C5. The second staff begins with a quarter note on G4, followed by quarter notes on A4, B4, and C5. The lyrics 'Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!' are written below the first staff, and 'Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!' are written below the second staff. The music consists of a simple, repetitive melody with a final cadence on a whole note G4.

The Gospel | John 10:11–18

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father.”

The Nicene Creed |

The people stand.

Officiant Let us affirm our faith using the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People |

The people stand or kneel for the prayers.

Intercessor Grace to you and peace from Jesus Christ, the firstborn of the dead. The Lord has acted; let us rejoice and be glad, saying,

You are our God;
People And we thank you.

Intercessor Ruler of the kings of the earth, Lord Jesus, your word is a word of peace: speak forth salvation in a weary world.

You are our God;
People And we thank you.

Intercessor All you do, O Lord, is marvelous in our eyes: give us a respect for all you have made.

If there are any births, the names are read aloud. Are there other thanksgivings?

You are our God;
People And we thank you.

Intercessor Mighty Savior, raise up faithful witnesses in our community, that our neighbors might come to know that you love them and have freed them from the power of sin. In the Anglican Communion, we give thanks and pray for the Province of the Episcopal Church of South Sudan. In our Diocese, we give thanks and pray for St. Gregory the Great Church in Athens. In our parish, we ask your blessing on our Earth Stewards. We give thanks for their ministry of calling us to faithful stewardship of your creation and ask your continued blessing on their friendships.

You are our God;
People And we thank you.

Intercessor O Lord, you are good; your mercy endures forever: be the strength of the weak and of those who are sick. The names of the sick will be read aloud.

You are our God;
People And we thank you.

Intercessor Alpha and Omega, you do not hand your beloved ones over to death, but promise life eternal to all those baptized into your Son: to you be glory and dominion forever. The names of those who have died will be read aloud.

You are our God;
People And we thank you.

Officiant Hasten, O God, the coming of your kingdom; and grant that we your servants, who now live by faith, may with joy behold your Son at his coming in glorious majesty; even Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate.

People Amen.

Confession |

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Officiant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name.
Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life.

People Amen.

The Peace |

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

The people are seated.

Offertory Anthem | 9 am

“The trumpets sound, the angels sing”

Graham Kendrick (b. 1950)

All Saints' Primary and Junior Choirs

The trumpets sound, the angels sing; the feast is ready to begin.
The gates of heaven are open wide, and Jesus welcomes you inside.
Tables are laden with good things; Oh, taste the peace and joy he brings.
He'll fill you up with love divine; he'll turn your water into wine.
The hungry heart he satisfies; offers the poor his Paradise.
Now hear all heav'n and earth applaud applaud the amazing goodness of the Lord.

Refrain: Sing with thankfulness songs of pure delight; come and revel in heaven's love and light.

Take your place at the table of the King; the feast is ready to begin.

Offertory Anthem | 11:15 am

“Greater love hath no man”

John Ireland (1879–1962)

Madison Tiegreen, soprano | Chris Barbee, baritone

Many waters cannot quench Love, neither can the floods drown it.
Love is strong as death.
Greater Love hath no man than this,
that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Who His own self bare our sins in His own Body
on the tree,
that we, being dead to sins,
should live unto righteousness.

Ye are wash'd,
ye are sanctified,
ye are justified,
in the name of the Lord Jesus;

Ye are a chosen generation,
a royal priesthood,
a holy nation,
That ye should shew forth the praises of Him
Who hath call'd you out of darkness, into His marvelous light.

I beseech you bretheren,
by the mercies of God,
that ye present your bodies,
a living sacrifice,
holy, holy,
acceptable unto God,
which is your reasonable service.

Text from Song of Solomon and St. John

Eucharistic Prayer A |

Celebrant
The Lord be with you.
People
And al - so with you.
Celebrant
Lift up your hearts.
People
We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

The Celebrant offers a proper preface for the day.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

organ

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
 God of pow'r and might, Heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry.
 Ho-san-na, ho-san-na, ho-san-na in the high - est
 Bless-ed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord.
 Ho - san - na, ho - san - na, ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and maker and of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, Almighty God, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Savior. By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer |

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God. Whoever you are, wherever you are on your journey, you are welcome at this table.

Healing prayers are offered in the chapel during communion.

All are welcome at God's table. You may receive communion by taking both the bread and wine or simply taking the bread if you do not wish to receive the wine. If you wish to receive a blessing instead, you may cross your arms over your chest.

Gluten free bread is available.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of Christ, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Blessing |

Celebrant

May Almighty God, who has redeemed us and made us his children through the resurrection of his Son our Lord, bestow upon us the riches of his blessing. Amen.

May God, who through the water of baptism has raised us from sin into newness of life, make us holy and worthy to be united with Christ forever. Amen.

May God, who has brought us out of bondage to sin into true and lasting freedom in the Redeemer, bring us to our eternal inheritance. Amen.

And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be upon you and remain with you forever. Amen.

Before your busy week begins, the Welcome Table is a place to join with others and find rest and refreshment. Come to the Welcome Table: a service of music (song and solo instrument), prayer (together and in ways that speak to us individually), and communion. A community dinner for all participants follows the service.

ALL

GIVING

Remember a loved one, honor a graduate or welcome the baptized

With a gift to our Memorials and Gifts Fund. These funds are used for worship at All Saints'. All Saints' notifies your honoree or family of the deceased of the gift you gave. Their name is also inscribed in the All Saints' Book of Remembrances and in the All Saints Day bulletin in November.

Make checks payable to All Saints' with "Memorials and Gifts" in the memo line or online giving click the "Memorials and Gifts" dropdown choice. The average amount for these gifts is $25- $100. This is a beautiful way to offer a lasting legacy.

Questions? Please contact Charlie Boyd, Chair of the Memorials and Gifts Committee at chsboyd@aol.com
